1회 이번 회차의 문법

빈칸은 뜻이 아니라 자리를 묻는다. 1회는 그 자리를 잡는 회차다.

01 2형식 동사 뒤는 보어, 보어 명사는 주어와 동격

be동사 같은 2형식 동사가 앞에 있으면 뒤는 보어 자리다. 보어에는 형용사류와 명사가 온다. 명사가 오면 그 명사는 주어와 같은 것, 곧 동격이다. 이때 주어는 제품명·학회명·프로그램명 같은 이름인 경우가 많다.

> Work Power Magazine is a new trade publication → 주어 = 보어

02 명사 앞을 지키는 네 형태

형용사, -ed, -ing, 소유격. 명사 앞에 올 수 있는 것은 이 넷이다. 실전에서 정답이 가장 자주 나오는 쪽은 소유격과 -ed다.

> her efforts / their budgets / expanded capabilities

03 완벽한 문장에 빈칸이면 부사다

주어·동사·목적어가 다 있는데 빈칸이 남았다면 그 자리는 없어도 되는 자리다. 그래서 부사가 들어간다. -ly, 전치사+명사, to부정사를 묶어 부사류라고 한다.

> may not fuse _____ with other glass → completely

04 시간 표시가 시제를 결정한다

last month이 보이면 과거다. in the last few years가 보이면 현재완료(have p.p.)다. 문장 맨 앞에 혼자 있는 빈칸도 부사 자리이고, 거기에는 Lately가 들어간다.

> in the last few years → have begun

05 사람 명사에는 관사가 붙는다

사람 명사는 앞에 a/an이 있어야 단수로 쓴다. 관사가 없으면 복수로 쓴다.

> to first-time _____ → buyers

06 5형식은 목적어 뒤에 형용사를 요구한다

found / kept / made / considered 뒤에는 「명사+형용사」가 온다. 명사를 하나 더 넣으면 틀린다.

2회 이번 회차의 문법

2회는 구별하는 회차다. 형용사와 부사, 명사와 동사. 이 구별이 흔들리면 답도 흔들린다.

01 be동사 뒤는 형용사다

2형식 be동사 뒤에는 형용사류가 온다. -tive, -ful, -ous, -able 그리고 -ing와 -ed다. 부사는 이 자리에 못 온다.

> the dressing is _____ enough → sweet

02 형용사 앞에도 부사가 온다

형용사를 앞에서 꾸며 주는 것도 부사다. 비교급이나 최상급이 아니라 부사가 답이다.

> is _____ operational → fully

03 전치사 뒤는 명사다

in _____ 처럼 전치사 뒤가 비어 있으면 명사가 온다. 선택지에 동사 변형이 여러 개 있어도 명사만 답이 된다.

> were in _____ → attendance

04 동사가 둘이면 접속사가 필요하다

한 문장에 동사가 둘이면 접속사부터 찾는다. 앞의 명사가 사람이면 who, 사물이면 which다. 장소나 시간을 묻는 문제가 아니다.

> Hemton House, _____ served as ~ → which

05 전치사 뒤 동사는 -ing로 갈아입는다

After 뒤에 주어와 동사가 없으면 그 After는 전치사다. 그래서 뒤의 동사는 동명사로 바꾼다.

> After _____ the promotion → accepting

06 주어 자리는 명사다

동사 앞이 비어 있으면 주어 자리이고 명사가 온다. 동사가 복수형이면 명사도 복수로 맞춘다.

> _____ by Arieli Sisters have attracted → performances

3회 이번 회차의 문법

3회는 능동·수동을 가리는 회차다. 동사 뒤에 명사가 있는지만 확인하면 대부분 풀린다.

01 동사 뒤에 목적어가 없으면 수동이다

능동과 수동의 기준은 주어가 사람인지 사물인지가 아니다. 동사 뒤에 명사(목적어)가 있느냐 없느냐다. 없으면 be p.p.로 간다.

> items that are not _____ → claimed

02 진행형 수동은 be being p.p.

be being이 보이면 그 뒤에는 반드시 p.p.가 온다.

> heating system _____ by the department → is being inspected

03 자동사 뒤에는 부사밖에 없다

arrive, remain, occur, last, expand는 자동사다. 목적어를 받지 않으므로 뒤에 명사를 넣으면 안 된다.

> did not _____ on time → arrive

04 명사 뒤 명사는 복합명사다

furniture delivery처럼 명사 두 개가 붙은 형태가 자주 나온다. 앞에 a/an이 없으면 뒤 명사는 복수로 쓴다.

> your furniture _____ → delivery

05 decision 뒤에는 to부정사

decision, time, schedule, meeting, way, purpose, proposal은 뒤에 to부정사를 데려오는 명사다.

> the decision _____ the line → to discontinue

06 전치사 + 빈칸 + 명사면 -ing

「전치사 + 빈칸 + 관사 + 명사」이면 정답은 동명사다. 이 형태는 예외 없이 -ing로 간다.

5회 이번 회차의 문법

5회의 핵심은 복합명사다. 명사가 두세 개씩 붙어 나온다. 그 사이에 형용사를 넣지 않도록 주의한다.

01 명사 + 명사 = 복합명사

office supply purchases, hearing protection devices, agricultural water usage. 통째로 외워 두면 바로 풀린다.

> Office supply _____ → purchases

02 2형식 보어 명사는 주어와 동격

will be가 2형식이니 뒤는 보어 자리다. 관사와 형용사가 붙어 있으면 보어로 명사가 온다. 그 명사는 주어와 같은 것이다. 주어가 제품명일 때 특히 자주 나온다.

> Clearfoto's latest camera will be a great success

03 명사 앞 -ed와 -ing

명사 앞에서 -ed와 -ing가 함께 나오면 대개 -ed가 답이다. -ing가 답이 되는 것은 자동사류(remain, last, exist, surround)에서 온 경우다.

> of _____ information → detailed

04 by + -ing

전치사 by 뒤에 동사를 써야 하면 동명사로 바꾼다. 방법을 나타내는 표현이다.

> by _____ its assembly-line process → updating

05 be p.p. 뒤에 명사가 없다

are _____ as being biodegradable. 뒤에 목적어가 없으므로 수동이고 p.p.가 답이다.

> are _____ as ~ → certified

06 주어-동사 수일치는 s 하나로 갈린다

3인칭 단수 주어면 동사에 -s를 붙이고, 복수 주어면 동사원형을 쓴다. crews complete가 그 예다.

1회 이번 회차의 어휘

어휘 문제는 뜻만 묻지 않는다. 품사와 짝(연어)을 함께 묻는다. 빈칸 앞뒤 두 단어를 보면 답이 정해진다.

01 전치사 뒤에는 명사, 접속사 뒤에는 문장

빈칸 뒤에 명사만 있으면 전치사, 주어와 동사가 있으면 접속사다. within과 by는 전치사, if와 that은 접속사다.

> submitted _____ the end of the month → by

02 시점을 만드는 전치사

after, before, during은 명사 앞에 쓴다. when, because는 뒤에 문장이 온다. 빈칸 뒤를 보고 고른다.

> _____ the success of his restaurant → After

03 명사끼리는 동격으로 이어진다

「명사, 명사」 구조에서 뒤 명사가 회사 이름이면 앞 명사도 회사를 뜻하는 말이어야 한다. 그래서 firm이 답이다.

> A midsize design _____, Gilwood Interiors → firm

04 숫자와 정도를 미는 부사

nearly, approximately, roughly, about은 숫자 앞에 쓴다. thoroughly, partially와는 쓰임이 다르다.

> As _____ a week has passed → nearly

05 동사는 목적어와 짝으로 외운다

conduct a survey, identify a problem, arrange a meeting, reduce expenses. 목적어를 보면 동사가 정해진다.

> has _____ expenses → reduced

06 구동사는 통째로

catch up 따라잡다, take after 닮다, pick up 태우러 가다, call on 방문하다. 동사와 전치사를 묶어서 외운다.

> must _____ a security pass → pick up

2회 이번 회차의 어휘

2회는 전치사와 부사를 구별하는 회차다. 같은 단어도 자리에 따라 품사가 달라진다. 빈칸 뒤를 먼저 본다.

01 뒤에 명사가 있으면 전치사

during, between, over는 뒤에 명사가 온다. lately는 혼자 쓰는 부사다. 뒤가 비면 부사, 명사가 오면 전치사다.

> _____ the renovation → during

02 접속사는 문장을 잇는다

but, while, so, that. 동사가 둘이면 접속사가 필요하다는 원칙은 어휘 문제에도 똑같이 쓴다.

> □□ □□ □□+□□□ □□□ □□

03 감정·상태 형용사는 대상을 본다

eager, anxious, opposed, interested는 사람의 상태를 말한다. 꾸미는 대상이 사물이면 -ing를 쓴다.

> are _____ to begin → eager

04 동사 + 전치사 짝

comply with, adhere to, respond to, conform to. 뒤에 오는 전치사까지 함께 외운다.

> _____ to the instructions → adheres

05 접속사로 굳어진 표현

provided that, given that, as long as, so that. 형태는 분사지만 접속사로 쓴다.

> _____ the increase in steel prices → Given

06 수량 형용사는 셀 수 있는지로 갈린다

many는 셀 수 있는 명사, much는 셀 수 없는 명사에 쓴다. 최상급 most 앞에는 the를 붙인다.

7회 이번 회차의 어휘

마지막 회차다. 전치사·접속사·부사, 그리고 동사의 목적어. 지금까지의 기준이 한 번에 나온다.

01 빈칸 뒤가 명사면 전치사

of, by, between, onto. 네 개가 모두 전치사면 뜻으로 고른다. 앞 명사와의 관계를 본다.

> the former _____ of the mill → site

02 although은 문장, despite는 명사

가장 자주 나오는 짝이다. 뒤에 주어와 동사가 있으면 although, 명사만 있으면 despite다.

> _____ the shortage → despite

03 동사는 목적어로 결정된다

examine a document, treat a customer, urge a change, proceed with a plan. 목적어를 보고 동사를 고른다.

> _____ with development → proceed

04 비교급 부사

earlier, more recently, longer, more frequently. 비교 대상이 문장 안에 있는지 먼저 확인한다.

> not return _____ than January 12 → earlier

05 형용사는 뜻의 방향으로

prestigious 명망 있는, dominant 지배적인, cooperative 협조적인. 문맥이 칭찬인지 사실 설명인지로 구별한다.

> will be awarded _____ Medal → prestigious

06 접속사로 쓰이는 표현 정리

unless, as long as, in case는 접속사, regardless는 부사다. 끝까지 빈칸 뒤를 보고 판단한다.

메이크토익 Part 7 독해 포인트

1. 추론문제

What is + indicated / mentioned / suggested / discussed + about ~?
추론문제는 어떠한 명사(주제가 되는 단어, 소재가 되는 단어인 명사)를 어떻게 설명하겠는가? 묘사하겠는가?를 말하는 것이므로 형용사 찾기 문제로 봐야 한다.
형용사 / 관계대명사 / to 부정사 / ing(현재분사) / ed(과거분사) / 숫자 등을 잘 봐야 한다!

2. 명령문 문제

What is + asked / required / invited / requested + to~?
문제는 일반적으로 무엇을 하라고 하는가 문제이기 때문에 명령문을 찾아야 한다.
명령문 신호: must / have to / need to / should / please / 5형식 동사(동사+명사+to 부정사 패턴): ask, require, request, invite, urge, allow, persuade

3. N 으로 시작하는 단어를 조심하자

No / Not / New / Never 등에서 정답과 관련된 문장이 잘 나온다.

4. 부정표현 긍정표현에 조심하자

Not include = Exclude ≠ Include = No additional
The price will not include the tax = The price will exclude the tax = The price will increase
The price will include the tax = The price will not be changed = There will be no additional money for the service

5. 동등비교 비교급 표현

지문 상에서 동등비교 as ~ as 와 비교급 more 를 잘 구별해야 합니다! 흐름상 대충 이렇게 가겠지 라는 생각에 정답을 잘못 고르는 경우가 있습니다!
We are as cheap as other companies → We are more cheaper than others 로 정답을 골라선 안 된다.
또한 비교급 표현을 잘 봐야 한다: There will be more opportunities for interactions in Spanish = They already speak some Spanish (이미 스페인어를 사용하고 있다는 내용을 이해해야 한다).

6. 전부를 포함하는지 일부를 포함하는지를 봐야 한다.

1) You can purchase necessary items, as needed = You don't have to buy the items all at once.
2) There will be a limited discount for the items = select = some = limited

7. 기간 표현에 주의하자

1) in 은 시간일 경우에 ~후 라는 의미이다. We will provide a refund within two business days → We will receive a bill in two business days 로 착각하지 말자!!!
2) July 10~15 를 5일로 착각하면 안 된다!! 6일!!

8. This year! 를 조심하자

This year, We will open the conference in Seoul → They opened the event in the different city last year.

9. 의무인지 아닌지를 구별하자

Pre / Early / Advanced + reservation / registration + is + required / essential / mandatory → You must reserve your room early
Pre registration is preferred = optional

김정수 메이크토익 · Part 7 · 선택지 (A)(B)(C)(D) 옆에 단어를 먼저 적으세요 — 1)선택지 2)지문

You can choose what color you want = There is an option for the color choice

10. Only, Just, Solely, Merely 같이 한정하는 표현!

11. extra, additional 같은 추가적인 이라는 표현!

12. certain, specific 같은 특정적인 이라는 표현!

13. Should 가 나왔을 경우엔 가정법인지 의심해야 함

14. Were it not for, Had it not been for 같이 ~이 없었더라면 표현!

15. 지역명을 보면서 international 인지 domestic 인지 구별

16. Internet : Intranet : Social Network 인터넷으로 간주!

Questions 156-157 refer to the following memo.

To: All staff

From: Alicia Krauss, Office Manager

Date: April 3

Subject: Policy

Due to the high number of requests submitted for time off during summer months, we would like to remind staff to get requests in early. Our policy is that no more than ten employees can be out during any specific workdays. Please use the online application form. If you have not requested vacation time by the end of next week, your requests may not be approved. We apologize for the inconvenience, but in order to deliver the quality of work N.W.E Architecture Group is known for, it is essential that we have sufficient staff to work on current projects and to communicate with clientele, as necessary. Please direct any questions to your immediate supervisor.

156. What is the purpose of the memo?

(A) To announce a change in procedure
(B) To report a problem with a computer application

Questions 155-157 refer to the following article.

A Place Where It Pays to Sleep

28 June - Starn Safe, a technology security company, is paying its employees to sleep more. Staff will earn $300 more per year if they get at least seven hours of sleep. -[1]-. That comes out to be little over one dollar per each night of the work week that the employee sleeps for more than seven hours.

According to management at Starn, participation will be voluntary, and those who enroll in the program record each night's sleep automatically by using an ordinary wrist monitor. -[2]-. This plan is based on an idea suggested by several studies of employee performance. Research has shown that people can work more efficiently if they have between seven to nine hours of sleep. Such efficiency can lead to significantly higher productivity for a company. -[3]-. In fact, the Morten Institute of Sleep Science has reported that each worker loses more than 11 days worth of productivity a year because of a lack of quality sleep. -[4]-. This plan gives a whole new meaning to the phrase, "Time is money."

155. What is the purpose of the article?

(A) To explain recent problems with a company's services
(B) To warn employees about workplace hazards
(C) To profile volunteers participating in a workplace study
(D) To describe a company's new program for employees

156. What does the article state about increasing the amount of time employees sleep?

(A) It causes employees to be late for work.
(B) It makes a more pleasant workplace atmosphere.
(C) It helps people get more done during a workday.
(D) It prevents employees from signing up for long shifts.

157. In which of the positions marked [1], [2], [3], and [4] does the following sentence best belong? "It can equal $2,800 in wasted wages per worker."

(A) [1]
(B) [2]
(C) [3]
(D) [4]

Questions 161-163 refer to the following article.

Local Business News

ELKSDALE (Jan. 5) - WCS Electronics announced yesterday the successful purchase of Baumann Technologies. More importantly for local residents, WCS confirmed that it will resume construction of the Baumann factory in Elksdale.

The local Baumann facility was designed to handle the bulk of the company's production, bringing thousands of jobs to Elksdale. But when Baumann ran into financial troubles two years ago, work on the building stopped. WCS spokesperson Sandra Orzetti said yesterday that the facility will be completed over the next few months and that hiring will begin soon after.

"Our plan is to finalize all job offers in July," said Orzetti. "We expect that the facility will be functioning at full capacity by November."

In addition to producing Baumann's most popular products under their original names, the facility will serve as the main manufacturing site for WCS's new MemL5 memory cards.

WCS Electronics became a leader in the electronics market two years ago after several years of struggle. It is currently headquartered in Philadelphia.

161. What is the purpose of the article?
(A) To explain why a company is moving
(B) To provide an update on a delayed project
(C) To announce the opening of a new business
(D) To describe a trend in electronics manufacturing

162. According to Ms. Orzetti, what will happen in July?
(A) A factory will be renovated.
(B) A building will be torn down.
(C) A company will hire employees.
(D) A new product will be introduced.

163. What is indicated about WCS Electronics?
(A) It has closed a Philadelphia office.
(B) It manufactures memory cards.
(C) It was sold to a larger company.
(D) It has several offices in Elksdale.

Questions 168-171 refer to the following electronic message board.

Board Moderator [9:00 A.M]

Team, our new uniforms are in. If you've already picked yours up, tell us what you think.

Pam Oliviera [9:45 A.M]

I'm so glad that the scarves are gone. They were such a nuisance when serving the passengers. They were always in the way and never looked good by the end of the flight.

Raul Sosa [10:02 A.M]

Nice, but the dark blue tops look almost black. Black shows lint and hair. We had a problem with those a few years ago. Does anyone remember?

Brenda Silva [10:31 A.M]

I like the fashionable collars and the shiny silver buttons on the tops. Well done, whoever picked those!

Pam Oliviera [11:00 A.M]

I don't think they are too dark. Lint won't show any more than on our current uniforms.

Sandra Bruno [11:12 A.M]

I like that we can now choose to wear either short sleeves or long sleeves. When we are in the air, the temperature is pretty constant, but on the ground, it can really swing one way or the other.

168. Who most likely are the people writing on the message board?

(A) Flight attendants
(B) Airplane engineers
(C) Fashion designers
(D) Airport ticketing agents

169. At 10:02, what does Mr. Sosa most likely mean when he writes, "Does anyone remember that?"

(A) He prefers the color black.
(B) He does not recall who chose the uniforms.
(C) He thinks the color will be a problem.
(D) He agrees that the scarves were annoying.

170. What does Ms. Silva think about the new uniforms?

(A) Their color is too dark.
(B) Their style is attractive.
(C) They have many buttons.
(D) They need more pockets.

171. What is the opinion of Ms. Bruno about the new uniforms?

(A) She thinks they need more improvement.
(B) She is happy that the scarves can be removed.
(C) She thinks they are too warm.
(D) She is happy that they come with options.

Pine Peak Technology Private Ltd.

431 Goupta Rd, 110111 New Delhi, India

12 February

Dear Mr. Chanda,

We are pleased to offer you the position of Technical Support Engineer, effective Wednesday, 4 March, at the starting salary of ₹240,000 per year. In accordance with company standards, you will serve a three-month probationary period, at the end of which a decision will be made about your continued employment in the appointed role.

Kindly confirm acceptance of the offer no later than Friday, 20 February, by sending an e-mail to the Human Resource Department, hrd@ppt.co.in, or calling 11 0111 5555. Should circumstances prevent you from assuming your duties on the date specified, please inform my office as soon as possible so that we can accommodate you. Note, however, that a new joining date cannot be later than Monday, 16 March.

On your joining date, please report to the HR Department. Bring a copy of this letter with you as it must be signed and dated in the presence of an HR official. At that time, you must also present a government-issued document, such as your Personal Account Number, passport, or driving license.

To facilitate the incoming employee's integration into the company, it is our practice to match up that person with an experienced staff member in your department. As such, Ms. Amala Gopal will be happy to address any questions you may have, including about your duties and the company's culture. She is available by phone at 11 0111 0416, and by e-mail at gopala@ppt.co.in. Note that your orientation session has been scheduled for 10 A.M. on Thursday, 5 March, at which time you will receive more information about the company's policies and benefits.

In closing, we welcome you to Pine Peak Technology, and hope you have a rewarding experience.

Sincerely,

Questions 164-167 refer to the following online chat discussion.

Lisa Yao [1:14 P.M.]

Brian, has Sousa Creative finished the invitations yet?

Brian Weinik [1:15 P.M.]

I just spoke with Taylor, and they're running behind schedule. They had promised all of the printed materials by Monday. Now, they say everything will be ready by Wednesday afternoon.

Lisa Yao [1:17 P.M.]

Will that wok with our mailing schedule?

Drew Hahne [1:17 P.M.]

Our board members are eager for the invitations as well, and I'd like to announce the event on our Web site by Thursday.

Brian Weinik [1:18 P.M.]

Shouldn't be a problem. As long as we receive the materials by 3 P.M. on Wednesday, we should be able to keep to our timeline. Drew, I'm also happy to forward the invitations as soon as we get them.

Lisa Yao [1:19 P.M.]

Great, please keep me updated if you hear from Taylor. Also, have you checked the menu with the caterer yet?

Brian Weinik [1:21 P.M.]

I will. I'll also be calling Hyuk at Radiant Caterers shortly to finalize the menu. Last Friday, I confirmed that we can use the larger space at Ralomer Hotel, so we will be able to host at least 250 guests.

Drew Hahne [1:22 P.M.]

Sounds great. Thanks, Brian. I'm looking forward to the celebration!

164. What is the purpose of the discussion?

(A) To schedule a board meeting
(B) To confirm a hotel reservation
(C) To discuss the details of an event
(D) To review options for catering companies

165. According to the discussion, when should the invitations arrive?

(A) On Monday
(B) On Wednesday
(C) On Thursday
(D) On Friday

166. At 1:18 P.M., what does Mr. Weinik most likely mean when he writes, "Shouldn't be a problem"?

(A) He can finalize a menu.
(B) He can stay on schedule.

4 October

Waleed Chaudri

17 Harter Street

London W1T1RJ

Dear Mr. Chaudri,

We at Fast World Magazine thank you for being a long-time subscriber. I am writing to tell you about some changes to your annual subscription. —[1]—. Beginning on 1 January, the price of a single subscription (12 monthly issues) will increase from £48.00 to £54.00. Please note that this rate (£4.50 per issue) still represents a significant savings (40 percent) from the regular newsstand price of £7.50 for a single issue. —[2]—.

We also want to remind you that annual subscribers have full access to the Fast World Magazine Web site. In addition to all the articles and features in the print version, as a subscriber you can access online-only content, such as customer reviews of the newest cars and trucks, and discussion forums featuring topics such as driving tips, car repair advice, and maintenance recommendations. —[3]—.

You can also use the Web site to submit a letter to the magazine-- letters submitted may even be printed in our Letters to the Editor section.

According to our records, your current subscription will expire with next month's issue. You can renew your subscription by mailing in the enclosed order form or by calling our customer service line —[4]—.

We hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

George Winwright

Questions 172-175 refer to the following information.

Acknowledgements

I would like to thank everyone who assisted me in the development of this book, which took ten years from start to finish. Without the help of a supportive group of individuals, Gujarat Farming Past & Present would never have reached publication.

Many people played a part in the preparation of this work. I am extremely grateful for Ms. Laura Golding's editorial help. Ms. Golding reviewed my manuscript, despite her busy schedule, and made several important suggestions that significantly improved the chapters on early farming equipment, in particular. In addition, I extend my sincerest appreciation to Mr. Baptiste Faucher, for allowing me to reprint a large number of his photographs.

There is one person, however, whom I would especially like to thank-- Mr. Santosh Naik. Mr. Naik led me to farming communities all over Gujarat, India, sharing what he had learned about regional farming practices. As a native to the area, he was my trusted trip advisor, taking me to the places I needed to visit to collect data on agricultural techniques. Without him, I would never have been able to carry out such in-depth research.

Padmakar Kulkarni

172. What is NOT indicated about Gujarat Farmers Past & Present?

(A) It took a decade to complete.
(B) It contains regional maps.
(C) It was written by Mr. Kulkarni.
(D) It includes many images.

173. What is mentioned about Ms. Golding?

(A) She recommended a photographer.
(B) She made frequent visits to India.
(C) She retired recently.
(D) She assisted with revisions.

174. The word "practices" in paragraph 3, line 4, is closest in meaning to

(A) methods
(B) attempts
(C) successes
(D) preparations

175. For what is Mr. Naik acknowledged?

(A) Serving as a guide
(B) Conducting research
(C) Operating a farm
(D) Teaching courses

Questions 172-175 refer to the following article.

Even many large consumer companies find it difficult to build a brand. For small entrepreneurs, the challenge is even greater. When Stanley Caulfield founded his company, No Storm in a Teacup, he wanted a brand name that was special. Now, Mr. Caulfield believes the name was a little too unique. -[1]-. "People were confused by the name," says Mr. Caulfield. "It was simply too long, so I shortened it to just 'In a Teacup.'"

According to market analyst Freya Norman, changing a brand name can be risky for a company. "If consumers are not aware that a brand's name has changed, they will switch to another brand," says Ms. Norman. "Changes to the packaging may have a similar effect." -[2]-. Despite the risks, the marketing team at In a Teacup decided to move forward with a change to its packaging as well. They hired Lauren Ricardo of Snip and Snap Design to create a new label for the company's line of herbal teas. An accomplished commercial graphic designer, Ms. Ricardo is known for her use of bright prints and geometrical patterns, and the design ideas she forwarded to In a Teacup reflected this style. -[3]-. Promoting the new look with a limited marketing campaign through social media, the company is aiming to gain visibility, among Millennials. At the same time, though, Mr. Caulfield hopes to retain his current customers by emphasizing that the quality of the tea remains unchanged. -[4]-. "We need to let our loyal customers know that we still make the same great product," he says. "But we also had to do something to grab the attention of potential new customers."

172. What is the purpose of this article?
(A) To analyze a new trend in the market
(B) To report on a decrease in sales
(C) To highlight a change of a brand name
(D) To advertise a new product

173. What does Ms. Norman warn about?
(A) Altering the packaging of a product
(B) Using various colors in an advertisement
(C) Changing a product quality
(D) Predicting future changes in sales

174. What is indicated about Ms. Ricardo?
(A) She is a regular user of social media.
(B) She likes to drink herbal teas.
(C) She agrees on changing a brand name.
(D) She is considered an expert in her field.

175. In which of the positions marked [1], [2], [3], and [4] does the following sentence best belong? "The team hopes the vivid colors will bring the attention of younger customers."
(A) [1]
(B) [2]
(C) [3]

Questions 176-180 refer to the following article and invoice.

A heated debate unfolded at the Trebent Council on March 22. The concern focused on what to do with a vacant lot at 177 Green Street. It was last occupied by a gas station, which closed after the creation of the Collen Highway diverted traffic away from the center of Trebent a decade ago.

A council member, Ricardo Trujillo, called for a plan to build a three-story parking garage. He referred to the Trebent consumer report that backs up his calls for the construction of the new parking garage.

"There have been continuous complaints about the lack of parking space. This discourages business from coming to downtown Trebent. The new parking structure will attract many merchants and shoppers to this area of the city."

Trebent Neighbor Society (TNS) came up with a different plan. TNS suggested converting the lot into a park. They pointed out the lack of parks residents can enjoy.

TNS member, Regina Newsome said "we don't need more concrete and buildings. We need more green plants, benches, and paths to walk on."

An elementary school teacher, Marta Linrow, suggested giving the children a playground. She mentioned that children in Trebent rarely have safe space to play.

"The lot doesn't have enough room for extensive park plantings and recreational equipment. It's not like Breezy Park— There's enough room for both there."

Mayor Bernie Watson has yet to offer an opinion about which suggestion he prefers. The council will vote on this matter on April 30.

You inquired about SRC guest passes for your relatives to use during their holiday visit. Unfortunately, your basic SRC membership does not include free guest passes. To qualify for this and any other benefit currently not included in your subscription package, you would need to upgrade your membership to the premium level. If you are inclined to do so, a balance of $360 will be due to cover your subscription for a year. Moreover, if you were to opt for a premium membership, your relatives would be entitled to exactly the same membership status. If not, your relatives can purchase day passes available at the front desk, for $10 per person. Please note, however, that day passes allow for access to the tennis and basketball courts only.

With best regards,

Irene Opiana

Smooth Transition at Perth's Langley Bistro

By Leila Mahmoud

PERTH (21 February) – Ezekiel Howe, the assistant chef at Langley Bistro under the direction of executive chef and previous owner Marcel Norton, has purchased the restaurant. "When Marcel decided to go back to his hometown of Greenville, South Carolina, and teach at the Culinary Institute," said Mr. Howe, "I knew I was ready to manage the restaurant myself."

Mr. Norton commented, "Ezekiel has helped build on every facet of this business, from the unique menu to the excellent service to the clever advertising. He's more than up for the challenge." Howe gained ownership this week and has already introduced some new dishes to the menu, including an asparagus and mushroom tortellini dish that was called "dazzlingly good" by food critic Petra Sing of Perth Newshub. For reservation call (314) 555-7912 or visit www.langleybistro.com.

I went with some friends to dine at Langley Bistro last night. The restaurant is comfortable and beautifully decorated. There's a set menu that changes each week, so there are only two choices for each of the three courses. This was a bit of a problem since I'm a vegetarian. The chef was willing to adjust the main course dish I wanted so that it would suit my needs, but then it took longer for our food to be prepared. My main course was fine but not amazing - basically just pasta with some vegetables and lemon-butter sauce. However, the asparagus and mushroom tortellini that everyone in my group ordered was delightful. I'd go back just to have that dish again.

Overall: 4 stars. ★★★★

FROM Adesai@marketalloys.com

DATE 5 July

SUBJECT August Appointment

Dear Mr. Gage,

I'm confirming that a Market Alloys representative, Tariq Jakhnani, will visit Chipover Depot on the morning of 19 August. Please have your scrap electronics sorted to expedite the evaluation process. Be prepared to negotiate the price at that time.

Prices offered are subject to daily market conditions. Let me fill you in a bit about what we are currently experiencing. Prices on reclaimed palladium have been trending downward. Similarly, because supplies of cooper and silver are high now, there has been downward pressure on prices for recycled sources. You will be pleased to learn, however, that demand for tantalum is unprecedented. The price has already doubled this year. A manufacturer in Korea has been willing to buy all we can provide in the short term.

It continues to be a pleasure doing business with you.

Sincerely,

SEOUL (1 Sept) - Keun Electronics today announced the initial release of its newest model laptop computer, the KT-900. The new product will be the fastest and lightest laptop in its class. These high-performance qualities are made possible by the use of newly designed rare-metal capacitors. The KT-900 is also one of the first mass-produced laptops containing more than 50 percent recycled material, much of it salvaged from out-modeled consumer electronics. A limited number of model KT-900s will be available tomorrow at the Korean company's flagship store in Seoul. Although international customers must wait until 30 Sept, Keun plans to begin shipping the device to outlets throughout Korea by 10 Sept.

191. What does Mr. Gage most likely do for a living?

(A) Mine for rare items
(B) Design laptop computers
(C) Replace computer components
(D) Manage an electronics recycling facility

192. According to the notice, where should a small item such as a computer mouse be placed?

(A) On the table
(B) In the green bin
(C) In the red bin
(D) At the service window

193. Why did Chipover Depot request that the small devices be dropped off by August 18th?

(A) Because the warranty will expire
(B) Because a buyer is coming the next day
(C) Because the discounted prices will be in effect
(D) Because space will be limited after that time

194. What is Keun electronics most likely using in its new laptop computers?

(A) Silver
(B) Copper
(C) Tantalum
(D) Palladium

195. When will the new laptop computer be available outside of Korea?

(A) On September 1
(B) On September 2

Indigo Sun Glassworks announces a new class

Copper Foil Stained Glass Course

Instructor: Daniel Terzian

Cost: $175

This course will meet for six consecutive Monday evenings, from 6.30 P.M. to 9.30 P.M., starting on Oct 18. No prior experience is necessary, but enrollment is currently limited to members of our community's arts organizations.

Learn the fundamentals of creating stained-glass art and leave with a piece you have created yourself. Topics to be covered include glass-cutting, design, color selection, soldering, and framing. Choose from an assortment of simple patterns or design your own.

Supplies and tools cost approximately $200 and can be purchased directly from ISG. Please note that they can be purchased as needed over the six-week period, which will ensure that students buy the right materials for their individual projects and also spread out the cost. While materials can be purchased elsewhere, students should be aware that quality varies from seller to seller. Having the best tools and materials improves the end-result.

Copper Foil Stained Glass

Week	Topic	Materials
1	Studio Safety; Introduction and practicing "glass-cutting" techniques	safety goggles, metal ruler with cork backing, glass cutter, pliers, cutting oil
2	Selecting glass and project pattern or design	paper, scissors, marking pen, glass
3	Cutting and grinding glass	safety goggles, shop gloves
4	Working with copper foil; wrapping glass	copper foil, utility knife
5	Soldering	soldering iron, sponge, pushpins
6	Framing and finishing	finishing compound, 18-gauge wire

[3]

Note: Studio time at Indigo Sun Glassworks is available on Saturdays from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. for those who would like more time with an instructor present. If you are interested in time with an instructor outside these hours, we recommend that you call ahead or be prepared to work in the studio independently.

To: Michael Chiu, Vice President of Finance

Re: Budget

Attachment: HR Resources Budget

Dear Mr. Chiu,

I have attached this year's budget for the Human Resources Department. I look forward to your review. Note that we will be able to reduce expenses in some categories. I had hoped to find savings in the conference budget (our largest budget category). We will in fact be able to cut expenses by switching travel agencies in the 3rd quarter However, the annual IPG Human Resources Conference's registration fee has increased by 15 percent, about $2,000. It essentially offsets the savings from that category. Therefore, there will be no change in the budget from last year.

If you have questions about any parts of the budget expenses, please contact me. I will be interviewing job applicants tomorrow and Wednesday. I can make time for you if you think a meeting is necessary.

Sincerely,

Alexandra Patterson

Director of Human Resources

From: Katarina Zhang (kzhang@octoxoom.co.sg)

Subject: Note from Katarina Zhang

Date: 20 June

Dear Ms. Fenmore,

Thank you for approving my application to join your internship program as a loan officer trainee at Singapore Financial. I very much look forward to working at your bank, and I hope that I will be one of the interns you select for a full-time position when the internship ends.

My only concern is that I am currently enrolled in a six-week intensive course called Principles of Commercial Lending, which runs until Friday, 12 July. Because the internship at your bank begins on Wednesday, 10 July, I would need to miss the first three days. Would it be possible for me to start on the following Monday instead? I believe this course will assist me in my work as a loan officer intern, so I hope that you will still allow me to take advantage of the internship opportunity.

I look forward to your reply.

Sincerely,

Katarina Zhang

Thank you for your e-mail. Your course sounds interesting, and it is certainly relevant to our industry. You will want to know that, because there were so many applicants for the internship positions this year, we decided to offer two month-long internship sessions instead of one. The 10 July session will be first; the second will begin on 12 August. This should alleviate any scheduling conflict.

Regarding staff positions, only after both sessions are over will we decide which interns to hire on a permanent basis. We will make those decisions by 14 September. These positions have a start date of 1 October.

Please call me so we can finalize your plans.

Regards,

Lydia Fenmore

181. What is one purpose of the first e-mail?

(A) To accept an offer of an internship
(B) To confirm an applicant's educational qualifications
(C) To report completion of a financial class
(D) To request scheduling flexibility from a company

182. What is mentioned about the Principles of Commercial Lending course?

(A) It is not yet being offered online.
(B) It is the final class needed for a certification.
(C) It is taught by a Singapore Financial employee.
(D) It is related to the work of a loan officer.

183. How long is a single internship period?

(A) Three weeks
(B) One month
(C) Six weeks
(D) Two months

184. When will Ms. Zhang most likely start work at Singapore Financial?

(A) On July 10
(B) On July 12
(C) On August 12
(D) On September 14

185. According to the second e-mail, what will happen on October 1?

(A) Interns will receive job offers.
(B) An internship session will end.
(C) Another financial course will start.
(D) New staff members will begin work.

Changes Ahead for Grinning Cow

GLASGOW (19 January) – Grinning Cow Ice Cream may be getting a face-lift.

After months of negotiation, Canada based Neufield and Harpers officially acquired the Scottish ice cream company and announced its intention to expand production overseas. The plan includes modifying Grinning Cow's packaging so it looks more like other Neufield and Harpers products.

Millions of containers of Grinning Cow Ice Cream are sold each year. With a broadly smiling cow and "Trust Our Farms" slogan, the familiar 1-litre containers have become a symbol of freshness and quality throughout Scotland. Nonetheless, Neufield and Harpers has indicated that the company intends to rebrand the line.

"We will do our best to retain as much of Grinning Cow's charm as possible," said Neufield and Harpers Director of Marketing, Stan Mapleton. "But, the ice cream also needs to be recognizable as a Neufield and Harpers product. This might mean changing the name, the slogan, even the size of the container."

Loyal fans of Grinning Cow Ice Cream in Scotland worry that the new owners will change more than just the packaging of their favorite products. Many are concerned that the ice cream itself will be compromised. However, Mapleton repeatedly stressed that the recipes will stay the same and that all products will continue to be made with only organic ingredients from the most respected farms.

I relocated to Canada from my homeland of Scotland earlier this year, and I am so happy to be seeing Grinning Cow Ice Cream in our local grocery stores! I tried the summer flavors and loved them all, especially the Strawberry Rose. I can't wait to try the autumn flavor!

My only complaint is that the options available to us in Canada are relatively limited. Do you have plans to introduce the full line of flavors here? I've seen some of the classics like the Edinburgh Hills Vanilla, but I have yet to find many of the others. I really miss my favorite, Zebra Stripe Cream. Even though Grinning Cow is a bit pricier here than other ice creams, it's worth it, in my opinion. I'd certainly be willing to pay a few extra dollars to taste my favorite frozen treat again!

I can look into that for you. Do you have the order and item numbers?

Katja Campbell (10:09 A.M.)

It was order #0928472 and I returned item #HF203.

Alex Seltzer (10:09 A.M.)

Thank you. Give me one moment.

Alex Seltzer (10:12 A.M.)

We received your return and your account was refunded, even though it still says “pending.” It is just the order status on the account page that is incorrect, which I’ll go ahead and change.

Katja Campbell (10:15 A.M.)

Sounds good. I’ll check with my bank to make sure the refund came through.

Alex Seltzer (10:16 A.M.)

Of course. I will e-mail you a copy of this conversation. Feel free to contact us with any other questions or concerns.

Katja Campbell (10:17 A.M.)

Thank you!

160. Why did Ms. Campbell contact Office Equip?
(A) To check the status of a returned item
(B) To ask about a return policy
(C) To request a copy of a receipt
(D) To report an item missing from an order

Questions 149-150 refer to the following e-mail.

To:	Yoshi Nakamura
From:	Barbara Salmon
Date:	8 October
Subject:	Vitamin C information

Hello Mr. Nakamura,

Below is the information about vitamin C. See what you think might be incorporated into the advertising materials your department is developing for the Emanato juice line. I think we might mention a couple of vitamin C's benefits in the packaging design too. Please communicate with the graphics department to see what ideas the artists can come up with.

Research suggests that vitamin C helps ensure good general health by strengthening the immune system's ability to fight infection, helps maintain a healthy heart by reducing cholesterol, helps heal muscle damage by supporting tissue repair (especially important for athletes), and helps the digestive system to absorb nutrients from the foods we eat.

Best,

Barbara Salmon

149. What type of work does Mr. Nakamura most likely do?
(A) Marketing products
(B) Creating art
(C) Treating illnesses
(D) Training athletes

150. What is NOT mentioned as a benefit of vitamin C?
(A) It helps prevent illness.
(B) It helps improve digestion.
(C) It promotes healing from injuries.
(D) It lowers stress levels.

Special Announcement by Geoff Clifford, President of Moon Glow Airways

As many of you are aware, there was a problem with Pelman Technology, the system that handles our airline reservations. This outage has affected several airlines. It's been a rough week, but the good news is that it has been repaired, and we are resetting our system. However, Moon Glow passengers may still face delays for a day or two. This most likely will include longer lines at airports. We have added more on-site customer service representatives at airports in all of our destination cities to assist customers with their flights and information. We appreciate your understanding and patience.

147. What is the purpose of the announcement?
(A) To report on airport renovations
(B) To give an update on a technical problem
(C) To introduce a new reservation system
(D) To advertise airline routes to some new cities

148. According to Mr. Clifford, what has the airline temporarily increased?

Questions 151-152 refer to the following report.

February 1

SOFTWARE TESTING REPORT

Version of Software Program: Konserted 2.5

Testing Dates: January 10–12

Number of Participants: 8

Software Testing Overview: Participants were asked to complete a series of tasks testing the functionality of the revised Konserted interface. In task number 1, participants searched for a concert in a designated area. In task number 2, participants searched for new friends on the site. In task number 3, participants invited friends to a concert. In task number 4, participants posted concert reviews, photos, and videos.

Initial Findings: Task number 3 proved the most challenging, with three participants unable to complete it in under two minutes. A potential cause for this difficulty may be the choice of icons in the menu bar. Clearer, more intuitive icons could make this task easier to complete for participants.

151. What is true about the software testing?
(A) It included multiple versions of Konserted.
(B) It was done over several days.
(C) It required participants to complete a survey.
(D) It took place at a series of concerts.

152. What action was difficult for users to complete?

To:	All Residents
From:	Dan Madsen
Date:	20 September
Subject:	Georgetown Marathon

To all Thompson Towers residents:

The 25th annual Georgetown Marathon will be held next Saturday. This year, for the first time, the race will turn off of River Street and proceed onto Elmont Avenue. So on Saturday, there will be nearly 5,000 registered contestants running along the stretch of road that provides the only access to our Thompson Towers parking garage entrance.

Unsurprisingly, Elmont Avenue will be closed to all vehicle traffic between 7:00 A.M. and 10:45 A.M. This means that residents' cars will not be able to enter or exit our parking garage during this event. If you know that you will need to use your car during this period, we recommend that you make arrangements ahead of time for either leaving early or parking elsewhere.

For more information about the race, including maps, registration guidelines, and alternative parking locations, please go to www.georgetownmarathon.co.uk.

Sincerely yours,

Dan Madsen

Property Manager, Thompson Towers

149. What is the purpose of the e-mail?
(A) To encourage participation in a race
(B) To warn of an upcoming road closure
(C) To reschedule a tenant meeting
(D) To announce a construction plan

150. What is indicated about the Georgetown Marathon?
(A) It has close to 5,000 participants.
(B) It is being held for the first time.
(C) It starts on Elmont Avenue.
(D) It includes participants from Thompson Towers.

Questions 151-152 refer to the following page from a handbook.

One reason that corrugated fiberboard has become such a popular material for shipping fresh vegetables and fruits is the ease of labeling the containers. Information such as the brand, size, and grade of the produce can be printed directly on the box after it has been formed. Although this method, known as "postprinting, " is the most economical way of labeling fiberboard containers, it is limited to only one or two colors. Full-color graphics can be obtained by printing the information on the box before it has been formed. This method, known as "preprinting, " costs about 15 percent more, but many supermarket managers prefer it because customers are attracted to the colorful displays, which leads to increased sales.

151. What is indicated about corrugated fiberboard boxes?
(A) They are easy to label.
(B) They hold more than other containers.
(C) They keep vegetables fresh.
(D) They are used less often than other types.

152. Why do store managers generally prefer boxes with full- color graphics?
(A) They can be cleaned and reused.
(B) They come in a wide variety of sizes.
(C) They are often requested by customers.
(D) They increase customers' purchases.

Olga Marek (8:32 A.M.) Hi, Brian. I was on my way to the Lindhurst Apartment Complex for this morning's job when the truck broke down again.

Brian Weston (8:35 A.M.) I was afraid of that. That's the fifth time in the last few weeks.

Olga Marek (8:40 A.M.) I know. We really need to get a new truck. I'd prefer the Giara Salerno, which sells for about $30,000 at Han's Motors.

Brian Weston (8:44 A.M.) Now that you mention it, I heard their advertisement about their annual sales event on the radio last night.

Olga Marek (8:45 A.M.) So that Giara may sell for even less. What are we waiting for?

Brian Weston (8:47 A.M.) I guess you're right. Let's stop by Han's after we've closed for the day.

Olga Marek (8:49 A.M.) I'm all for it. OK, the tow truck driver is taking me to see the auto mechanic now. I'll see you at the shop later.

151. At 8:45 A.M., what does Ms. Marek most likely mean when she writes, "What are we waiting for "?
(A) They should go to the Lindhurst Apartment Complex.
(B) They should call the tow truck company.

Questions 157-159 refer to the following information.

Thank you for purchasing a Treedillo!

The Treedillo is a watering bag that is specially designed to release water at a slow and steady rate, delivering it directly to the roots of a young tree. This watering method prevents water loss through evaporation. It also allows for more efficient irrigation, especially during the warmest months. It takes about 7-10 hours to empty completely and is best used on young trees with a trunk diameter of 3-10 centimeters. For details about installation, refer to the information on the back of the product package. Once your sapling outgrows the Treedillo, consider gifting the watering bag to a friend or neighbor who is nurturing another young tree. Treedillo is easy to use, and no special tools are necessary to set it up.

157. According to the information, what is a purpose of the Treedillo?
(A) To provide shade
(B) To conserve water
(C) To help protect a tree from pests
(D) To regulate the soil temperature

158. What is mentioned about the project package?
(A) It features instructions for setup.
(B) It should be recycled.
(C) It has recently been redesigned.
(D) It should be kept out of the heat.

159. What is implied about the Treedillo?
(A) It comes in one size.
(B) It is advertised online.
(C) It is sold with accessories.
(D) It is sold with a plant.

From:	tanya_waters@cardorama.co.uk
Date:	16 May
Subject:	Your Cardorama Order

Dear Ms. Shekhawat,

This message is to confirm that we have received your revised order for custom invitation cards. —[1]—. We have prepared a new proof, which you will be able to check for accuracy and revise, if necessary. You will be able to access the proof by clicking the link included in a separate e-mail. Please pay close attention to the layout and wording of the proof. —[2]—. Upon completion of your review, select the Confirm button at the bottom of the page.

As a reminder, please note that order change requests must be made within 24 hours of the order having been placed. —[3]—. Yours was filed after the deadline had passed, and normally, a change order fee of £10 would be applied. However, because of our long-standing business relationship, this charge was waived. —[4]—. Please note that this gesture on our part is a one- time courtesy only.

Once your order is complete, you will be notified of the shipping and tracking details. Thank you for your business.

Questions 151-153 refer to the following e-mail.

To:	Nazrin Durani <narzind@fastmail.af>
From:	Min-Ki Han <mkhan@incheonfolkmuseum.kr>
Date:	20 June
Subject:	Your Application

Dear Ms. Durani,

Thank you for contacting us in regard to your wish to donate two antique dolls to the Incheon Folk Museum. We received your application regarding the donation along with the photographs of the dolls. Your application will be evaluated by the museum's collection committee at its next meeting in August. The committee will present its assessment of the donation to the director, who will make the final decision.

We have an extensive evaluation process which helps us determine whether a donation fits with the museum's thematic acquisition priorities, what the requirements are for the long- term preservation of any items, and whether there are any legal limitations to accepting items into our collection.

We ask for your patience, as the process takes approximately three months. All applicants will receive written notification of the final decision.

Dr. Min-Ki Han

Assistant Director of Acquisitions

151. What is one purpose of the e-mail?
(A) To confirm receipt of some documents
(B) To invite Ms. Durani to a meeting
(C) To provide more details about some dolls
(D) To ask for an additional donation

152. According to Dr. Han, why might an item be rejected?
(A) The price may be too high for the museum's budget.
(B) The committee may not have time to examine it.
(C) Space may not be available for it in the museum.
(D) Laws may prohibit the museum from accepting it.

153. What is suggested about Ms. Durani?
(A) She has spoken to the director of the museum.
(B) She owns a toy store.
(C) She will be contacted by the museum in three months.
(D) She is a member of the Incheon Folk Museum.

Questions 161-163 refer to the following article.

HAM Responds to Complaint by Reema Doshi

(14 November)—The practice of tipping servers is frequently a source of confusion for the public. Some restaurants and hotels in Mumbai have adopted the practice of including a suggested tip, ranging from 10 to 20 percent, on customers' bills. But several customers of these establishments, believing the practice to be a requirement, filed a formal complaint about this practice with the Consumer Affairs Bureau in August of this year.

Last week, the Hospitality Association of Mumbai (HAM) issued a formal response stating that all tipping is, by definition, optional. Said HAM president Harish Banerjee, "I was quite surprised by the reaction. Of course customers may legally refuse to pay the suggested gratuity if they are dissatisfied with the service in any way. "

HAM is now working on a plan to prominently display notices about the tipping policy in hotels and restaurants.

161. What is the article mainly about?
(A) A law that was recently passed
(B) A suggested extra charge on service bills
(C) An upcoming meeting of a professional association
(D) A decrease in a required service fee

162. Why was Mr. Banerjee surprised?
(A) Because HAM had never received a complaint before
(B) Because hotels and restaurants changed their prices
(C) Because customers misunderstood a recommendation
(D) Because businesses did not improve their customer service

163. What does the article suggest will happen soon?
(A) Signs will be posted in some public places.
(B) Restaurants will hire additional servers.
(C) HAM will host a meeting with customers.
(D) Tipping rates will increase.

Questions 155-157 refer to the following memo.

MEMO

To: All Quality Control Personnel

From: Yeongae Jeong, Vice President for Production

Date: 8 July

Subject: Increase in inspections

Beginning today, all quality control engineers who work in fabrication plants B and C should increase their inspections by 25 percent. — [1] —. This revision to our quality control policy will be accomplished by pulling from the line five rather than four finished microchip assemblies per each batch of 100. — [2] —. The process for testing the microchips pulled from the line will remain unchanged. In addition, engineers should now record inspections in the expanded form 139A. — [3] —. The new form will be available at your workstations starting today. You should contact your supervisor if you have any questions. — [4] —.

155. What is the purpose of the memo?

Questions 158-160 refer to the following article.

Swanbury at 100: A Success Story

When Swanbury was officially founded a century ago, its primary economic driver was the textile industry. — [1] —. By the time the city celebrated its sixtieth anniversary, however, textile jobs were no longer able to keep Swanbury's growing workforce fully employed.

That's when town officials realised that drastic measures were needed, and the Swanbury at 100 initiative was launched. — [2] —. The goal of the programme was to attract a wide range of businesses to Swanbury so that, by the time the city celebrated its one hundredth anniversary, its economy would be far more diverse.

"To attract businesses, city officials decided to invest in the development of a well-educated and healthy workforce, " said current Swanbury Mayor Ian McChesney. "The city greatly modernized its education and health-care systems. — [3] —. It also undertook an aggressive marketing campaign to lure national and regional companies. "

This year, as Swanbury officially marks its one hundredth anniversary, the city is home to companies that are well-known nationwide, including Kendrew Foods, Allied Appliance Manufacturers, and Ventrack

Pharmaceuticals. — [4] —. "I think we can safely say that Swanbury at 100 has been a tremendous success, " said Mayor McChesney.

158. What is suggested about the Swanbury at 100 initiative?
(A) It did not have public support.
(B) It was started around the time of the city's sixtieth anniversary.
(C) It was promoted heavily in schools.
(D) It inspired Mayor McChesney to propose a new initiative.

159. What can be concluded about the city of Swanbury?
(A) Its workforce doubled in 60 years.
(B) It is situated near a body of water.
(C) It won an award.
(D) It has diversified its economy.

160. In which of the positions marked [1], [2], [3], and [4] does the following sentence best belong? "To show our appreciation, management is providing some opportunities to have fun this week. "

Spotlight on Geiger Travel

Wanting to combine his passion for exploring places and cultures with his career as a corporate travel consultant, Marcus Geiger founded Geiger Travel Management (GTM). Now, ten years later, the company has offices in the United States, Canada, and several South American nations. It crafts itineraries and facilitates travel and accommodation arrangements for business professionals.

GTM also offers its clients secure, high-speed computers, conference call systems, and file management software through an agreement with Balefire Electronics, located in Mumbai. "We owe a lot of our success to Balefire," says Mr. Geiger, "because their services enable our clients to work efficiently wherever they are."

Mr. Geiger is optimistic that further growth is on the horizon for GTM. Two additional businesses, Apura Airways, based in Paramaribo, Suriname, and the restaurant chain Triggerfish, headquartered in Bridgetown, Barbados, have agreed to enter into strategic partnerships with GTM in August. And looking to launch operations in Europe, the company is currently in discussions with Krokushaus AG, a hospitality company with locations throughout Germany.

For more information about Geiger Travel Management, visit www.gtm.com.

Questions 158-160 refer to the following press release.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE Contact: Sherylin Stevens, sstevens@tearsoncorp.ca

CALGARY (2 November)—Yves Vernier, the Chief Information Officer of the Tearson Corporation, announced on Monday that 200 robots will soon appear in Tearson's grocery stores. The robots, which are all named Bailey, will be used to locate areas where boxes or bottles have fallen and broken, spilling cereal, juice, or other substances onto the floor. The robots will report the spills so that the locations can be cleaned by store employees before they become safety hazards.

The robots were tested in Calgary, where Tearson's head office is located. During the eighteen- month pilot programme, store managers consistently gave the robots high marks. Although the robots have been used in the company's warehouses for several years, this will be their first time working in stores and interacting with customers. All Tearson stores should have the robots by the beginning of December.

For more information, visit Tearson Corporation at www.tearsoncorporation.ca.

Thank you for choosing Sleep Soundly Solutions!

The updated control panel is linked to an integrated system that allows you to activate and disable all security systems in your home, including your Sleep Soundly motion sensor as well as your fire, smoke, and carbon monoxide detectors.

All Sleep Soundly residential alarm systems have been tested thoroughly to ensure the highest quality and sensitivity, so you can sleep soundly in the knowledge that your home is protected. We have also developed a new smartphone application that will notify you of any disturbances wherever you are. The app is available for download now.

Sleep Soundly control equipment is carefully manufactured for use with Sleep Soundly detectors and alarms. Using products manufactured by other companies may result in an alarm system that does not meet safety requirements for residential buildings or comply with local laws.

Questions 161-163 refer to the following article.

Muelker Shipyard Undergoes Transformation

May 2—The Muelker Shipyard, a once-bustling ship manufacturing center, is being given a new role. A team of engineers is working to turn it into an open-air pedestrian mall with restaurants, a dozen retail businesses, and an outdoor patio that will feature live music performances.

Until June of last year, the city had planned to demolish the shipyard—a decision that caused a strong reaction from community members, especially former shipbuilders who viewed the site as a treasured industrial landmark. Wanting their labor to be remembered by future generations, many shipbuilders had etched their names on a wall near the entrance.

“In the peak of production, shipyard workers produced a naval ship in just a year,” said lead engineer, Barney Enyart. “Then production gradually slowed, and the shipyard eventually closed. When this project is complete, the new complex will be enjoyed throughout the year, serving as a place for employment opportunities and recreation while the legacy of the site's past will endure.”

161. What is NOT mentioned in the plans for the shipyard?
(A) Office spaces
(B) Entertainment
(C) A shopping section
(D) Eating establishments

162. What is suggested about the Muelker Shipyard?
(A) It will be featured in a video.
(B) It will have a monument to former workers.
(C) Local residents appreciate its history.
(D) A ship is currently being built there.

To: EITS Members / From: EITS Board / Date: 5 March / Subject: End-of-year reflection

Dear EITS Members:

The board of the European Information Technology Society (EITS) thanks you for making our inaugural year successful. We have experienced steady growth in our membership over the past year.

I would like to take this opportunity to provide you with the results of our latest membership survey. Its objective was to gather feedback on the programmes we have sponsored so far and to gain insight into what members would like the board to undertake in the organization's second year and beyond.

Over 70 percent of survey respondents cited exchanging business information and meeting others in the industry as the most important benefits of membership. Therefore, the board has decided to continue holding monthly networking events. Nearly 60 percent of respondents expressed the desire for a greater sense of community, so we will be building in additional time for socialising before and after membership gatherings. And lastly, we will be organising fewer educational seminars, since only 35 percent of respondents rated these events favourably. We are looking forward to another successful year. / Sincerely, Pierre Fouquet, President, EITS

Questions 161-163 refer to the following article.

Hop-In Launches New Service in Chesterford

January 26—Hop-In, a ride-sharing platform for commuters, has announced that it will soon be launching a service in Chesterford. The expansion comes after success in other small cities, where Hop-In continues to experience growth in its user base and high user- satisfaction ratings.

Hop-In allows registered users to find other commuters in the area taking similar routes to their workplaces. Commuters can then agree to split the costs and lessen the stress of driving by sharing rides. According to a spokesperson for Hop-In, commuters can save an average of $70 a month by ride sharing.

Rupa Gudipati, a recent convert to Hop-In, explained, "I used to drive by myself to work every day, until I heard ride sharing might be less expensive. I decided to give it a try. Within a short time, I became sold on this transit option. "

It is evident that individual commuters are not the only ones who benefit from ride sharing. Like many other cities, Chesterford is searching for ways to improve air quality in the region, and fewer vehicles on the roads means the reduction of a common source of air pollution.

161. What is the main purpose of the article?
(A) To compare work commutes in small cities
(B) To promote job opportunities at Hop-In
(C) To explain how to calculate transportation costs
(D) To describe a new service in Chesterford

162. The word "split " in paragraph 2, line 4, is closest in meaning to

Questions 172-175 refer to the following article.

Cultural Organisations Partner for Artifact Preservation — By Daisuke Wakahisa
LONDON (2 April)— Shanghai's Chinese Literature Institute (CLI) has been a highly respected research organisation for decades. Visitors to the CLI can view thousands of original literary texts, source materials, and other important documents produced by Chinese authors and scholars. The institute recently initiated an effort to preserve a dozen historical Chinese texts donated by a patron who acquired them over 50 years ago.

"The donor believed that these texts would best be displayed at our institute for the enjoyment of the public at large, " explained director Ning Luan. "The anonymous donor's decision was based on the CLI's central location and strong reputation. " However, since the CLI generally focuses on contemporary material, it was not appropriately equipped to restore the very old texts. "We are currently collaborating with the England Museum of Natural History to restore these materials to their original condition, " Ms. Luan said. "The museum has donated equipment to aid in the restoration process. " Additionally, Geoffrey Brooks, the chief archivist at the England Museum, travelled to Shanghai to share his expertise with institute staff. "We have a common passion for literature and artifacts of all time periods and cultures, and we are honoured to help preserve these important texts, " Mr. Brooks stated. The institute anticipates that the material will be fully restored and on exhibit by 30 September.

172. What is the topic of the article?
(A) The review of a new art exhibit
(B) A joint effort to restore texts
(C) Contemporary Chinese literature
(D) The recent expansion of a museum

173. What position does Mr. Luan hold?
(A) CLI director
(B) Public relations specialist
(C) Visiting researcher
(D) University professor

174. What is true about Mr. Brooks?
(A) He has just been promoted.
(B) He is an expert in document restoration.
(C) He has written many literary works.
(D) He speaks many languages.

175. What is suggested about the recently acquired texts?
(A) They were donated by a scholar who wrote them.
(B) They were discovered by a local resident.
(C) They will be shipped internationally.
(D) They will undergo months of preparation before they are exhibited.

Questions 168-171 refer to the following online chat discussion.

Clarke, Ellen (10:38 A.M.) Hi, Insook and Mario. I've finished my presentation on improving the process for delivering hot meals. What should I do next?

Park, Insook (10:42 A.M.) Thanks, Ellen. Mario is gathering all presenters' materials for next week's restaurant innovation conference. Please send him the file. Clarke, Ellen (10:43 A.M.) I'm sending it now.

Ramirez, Mario (10:45 A.M.) Got it, Ellen. Can you also send me a brief biography? It'll be included in the conference pamphlet with a summary of your presentation. I need it no later than Monday.

Park, Insook (10:46 A.M.) Anything else?

Clarke, Ellen (10:47 A.M.) I'll write it this weekend, Mario. And yes, one more question. I was told I could attend other lectures at the conference, but the tickets must be reserved. How can I do that?

Ramirez, Mario (10:49 A.M.) On the conference Web site, go to the presentation schedule. Click on the title of an event you want to attend. A "reserve tickets " button will appear. Clarke, Ellen (10:51 A.M.) Thanks. I'll check it out. A session on purchasing ingredients from organic farms looks particularly interesting. The information will be useful for our fast-food chain.

Questions 172-175 refer to the following article.

Piper Solar Energy: Going from Marketing the Event to Closing the Sale

A primary goal of the business development manager at Piper Solar Energy is to increase the number of customers who purchase our solar panels. —[1]—. To ensure that you are converting attendances at marketing events into customers, follow these recommended steps.

First, research upcoming marketing events or organize an event. —[2]—. Some examples of marketing events are product demonstrations, videotaped presentations posted on social media, and trade shows such as home improvement exhibitions. Be sure to collect contact information from people you meet at these events.

Within 48 hours of the marketing event follow up with event participants. Prioritize the prospects who are forthcoming about plans to invest in solar panels and those who engage you with questions about our company and products. —[3]—. Send personalized e-mails to inquire about setting up a consultation.

Once you have engaged the prospect on the phone, be prepared to close the sale. Demonstrate a thorough knowledge and be able to respond to any question or concern the potential client may have. —[4]—.

Finally, celebrate when you have turned a prospect into a satisfied customer!

Questions 164-167 refer to the following article.

An Ideal Office Environment

Dubai offices tend to be very modern and impressive these days. However, are they truly productive places to work? Studies show that a bright and interesting work space allows creative energy to flow and keeps employees motivated and energized throughout the workday, thereby increasing productivity. Here are a few simple and inexpensive changes that can improve the atmosphere and increase employee output.

Posters and photographs are easy to hang up and can break up the monotony of blank office walls and computer screens. Beautiful nature scenes, paintings, or even geometric patterns can allow people's minds to take a quick break.

Bring the outdoors inside cheaply with greenery. Live plants not only filter the air but also improve people's moods and bring serenity to the office environment. If live plants are too difficult to maintain, artificial plants are a good substitute.

Consider adding a recreation room or a collaboration area. Carving out a space where employees can blow off steam, relax, and collaborate with each other in an informal way is key to fostering inspiration and new ideas. This can be as easy to do as adding comfortable seating areas clustered around low tables.

164. Where would the article most likely be found?
(A) In a health industry journal
(B) In a tourist travel magazine
(C) In an environmental newsletter
(D) In a workplace design publication

165. What is a stated reason for making the recommended changes?
(A) More work will get done.
(B) Offices will be less cluttered.
(C) Profits will increase.
(D) Clients will feel more relaxed.

166. What is NOT mentioned about live indoor plants?
(A) They improve air quality.
(B) They have a calming effect on staff.
(C) They are easy to maintain.
(D) They are inexpensive.

167. What argument is offered in support of having a shared area with comfortable seating?
(A) It can promote employee creativity.
(B) It is an easy space to clean.
(C) It can be a place for making personal phone calls.
(D) It requires less furniture.

Questions 168-171 refer to the following article.

Have you ever been asked to give a presentation on short notice, leaving you minimal time to prepare? No doubt you were left feeling anxious and even a bit unsure about how to approach this challenge. We asked a panel of experts for advice about this very situation. "One critical step is to decide what presentation format would be the most suitable, " explained Emilia Berkel, a presentation skills coach. "Obviously there is a wide range of presentation methods to choose from. Just try not to spend time creating something elaborate. In most instances simpler is better. "

"In my opinion, your first priority is to identify the main goal of your presentation, " said James Cho, a human resources consultant.

"To put that another way, " added Dr. Matilda Ivars, Professor of Organizational Psychology at Brisbane Technical Institute, "You need to define the exact response you want from your audience. "

Jillian Lim, a manager at Yosu Innovations, agreed. "Whenever I am preparing a presentation to promote a new product, I carefully consider the characteristics of my prospective audience and which talking points would likely be most persuasive to them, " she said.

168. What is the purpose of the article?
(A) To motivate readers to enroll in a course

Questions 168-171 refer to the following text-message chain.

Gina Kwon (1:09 P.M.) Hello, Jim. I think I left my USB drive in Ludmilla's office. Our presentation to the board of directors of Snackerlandia is on it. Can you get it and bring it with you?

Jim Smith (1:10 P.M.) Sure. Are you at their location already?

Gina Kwon (1:12 P.M.) No, I'm at Conchita's Coffee House. I wanted to go over the key elements of that presentation one last time when I noticed that I did not have the drive with me.

Jim Smith (1:13 P.M.) Don't worry. We'll do just fine. After all, we have been designing that digital advertising campaign every day for the last two months. I'm going over to Ludmilla's office now.

Gina Kwon (1:17 P.M.) And? Did you get it?

Jim Smith (1:18 P.M.) Sorry, Gina. It seems Ludmilla has left for the day and has locked her office. I can call the security desk to come and open the door to her office.

Gina Kwon (1:19 P.M.) That won't be necessary. You'll find the document on the shared drive in the "New Projects " folder under the name "Snackadcamp. " Just copy it on a USB drive. Jim Smith (1:22 P.M.) Alright. Is it password protected? Gina Kwon (1:23 P.M.) No, it's not.

Jim Smith (1:25 P.M.) Okay, I'll get right to it. Anything else?

Gina Kwon (1:26 P.M.) No, thanks. See you there.

168. What type of business are the writers in?

Questions 172-175 refer to the following e-mail.

From: jrobins@rayaxo.com / To: rmajewski@rayaxo.com / Subject: Accuracy of specifications / Date: November 19 / Attachment: CF-4500

Dear Mr. Majewski,

We just received the Polish edition of the CF-4500 production specifications from Julia Kaminska. Could you please look over the attachment and make sure it matches the English original in our files? Although we have always been satisfied with the quality of Ms. Kaminska's work, the CF-4500 is especially important. As you know, we've contracted with a manufacturer in Poland to produce the lighting fixtures and controls, and the process will undergo a test run next Friday. Therefore, it is important that you double-check all the figures referring to the sizes. Any inaccuracies could lead to cost overruns and potentially delay production. Please complete your review by tomorrow afternoon at the latest and let me know if you find any errors in the Polish version. We must forward the specifications to the production engineer on Monday so that their equipment can be ready for Friday's test run. Representatives from the client will be on hand to watch it.

Thank you, Jessica Robins

172. What services does Ms. Kaminska provide?

(B) Compare two documents
(C) Repair faulty equipment
(D) Travel to Poland

174. What is one piece of information contained in the attachment?
(A) The schedule of tests
(B) The quality of materials
(C) The layout of a building
(D) The dimensions of parts

175. What will happen on Monday?
(A) A document will be sent.
(B) An agreement will be finalized.
(C) Production equipment will be cleaned.
(D) A manufacturing process will be tested.

Questions 164-167 refer to the following online chat discussion.

Lindsay Pokora (2:15 P.M.) Hello, Mr. Kopalinski. I need to place the monthly office supplies order. In addition to the regular items, can you let me know if anything extra is needed?

Craig Kopalinski (2:17 P.M.) Let me check with the other managers. Kaitlyn and Jeffrey, do you have any requests for office supplies in your departments? Kaitlyn Daley (2:18 P.M.) Yes, we need more whiteboard markers.

Craig Kopalinski (2:19 P.M.) And how about accounting?

Jeffrey Carden (2:20 P.M.) Nothing here.

Lindsay Pokora (2:22 P.M.) Markers? I just checked our inventory and we still have a box in the supply room. Do you need a special kind?

Kaitlyn Daley (2:23 P.M.) No, just regular black markers. Three boxes should be enough. I tried some markers from the box we have, but they seem to have dried up. A group of new employees will be starting next week, and we'll need markers for the orientation and training sessions.

Craig Kopalinski (2:24 P.M.) OK. Lindsay, in addition to those markers, could you please order a new chair for the second-floor conference room to replace the one that is broken? You'll need to look up the model number. Thanks.

Questions 172-175 refer to the following review.

Patrons See Big-City Art at Local Museum

No need to venture into the big city to see an impressive art collection. — [1] —. Locals know Janford as a quiet town situated next to a forest that is popular with hikers. — [2] —. It is likewise home to Janford University and an unexpectedly outstanding museum. Considered one of the finest university art museums in the nation, the Janford University Art Museum (JUAM) houses over 94,000 pieces, with works dating from ancient times to the present. Due to the size of its collection, the museum regularly rotates the works on display. — [3] —. It also hosts temporary exhibitions featuring loans from other institutions.

Experts consider JUAM noteworthy as a home to a comprehensive collection of twentieth- century art. — [4] —. In particular, it holds the largest public collection of works by sculptor Robert Dabulis, with more than 50 of his pieces and an assortment of his sketches.

The museum offers free admission and is open daily from 10 A.M. to 5 P.M. On Friday evenings, the museum has extended hours until 10 P.M.

Questions 161-164 refer to the following e-mail.

To: Mara Renaldo / From: Lisa Yang / Date: May 28 / Subject: RE: Staffordsville Craft Fair

Dear Ms. Renaldo,

Thank you for your interest in selling your handcrafted items at the annual Staffordsville Craft Fair. Please note that all applicants must submit a $25 application fee, whether or not they want to share a space with another applicant. Moreover, all applicants must submit a minimum of four photographs of their work in order to be considered as a vendor. — [1] —. In addition to photographs, we ask that you submit a rough sketch showing how you would display your work. Since you propose to share a space with a friend, local potter Julia Berens, it would be helpful if your sketch could indicate how you are planning to use the space jointly. — [2] —. Also, because we hold the fair rain or shine, all vendors must supply their own tenting to protect themselves and their wares from the possibility of rain. — [3] —. Finally, please be aware that every year we receive far more applications from jewelry makers than we can accept. We hope that you will not be too discouraged if your work is not accepted this year, as you are applying for the first time. — [4] —. Thanks again, and best of luck with your application,

Lisa Yang

Questions 168-171 refer to the following letter.

March 29

Dear Dr. Geerlings,

I am writing to thank you for your years of service on the faculty of the Jamaican Agricultural Training Academy (JATA) and to let you know about some exciting developments. As you know, JATA was originally established as a vocational school for agriculture but now offers courses in a varied array of disciplines, including cybersecurity, electrical engineering, and health information management. Our student body, which for the first ten years consisted almost exclusively of locals, is now culturally diverse, with students from across the Americas and Europe. Today's students work with sophisticated equipment, much of which did not exist in our early days.

To reflect these and other significant changes that JATA has undergone over time, the Board of Trustees has approved a proposal by the Faculty Senate to rename the institution the Caribbean Academy of Science and Technology. As a result, a new institutional logo will be adopted. All students and faculty members, both current and former, are invited to participate in a logo design contest. Information about the contest will be forthcoming.

The renaming ceremony and the introduction of the new logo will take place at 11 A.M. on 1 June, the twentieth anniversary of the institution. We hope you will be able to join us. Sincerely, Audley Bartlett, Vice President for Academic Affairs

168. What is one purpose of the letter?
(A) To announce a name change
(B) To honor distinguished alumni
(C) To suggest revisions to a curriculum
(D) To list an individual's accomplishments

169. The word "established " in paragraph 1, line 3, is closest in meaning to
(A) affected
(B) founded
(C) confirmed
(D) settled

170. What is suggested about Dr. Geerlings?
(A) She plans to attend JATA's anniversary celebration.
(B) She has taught courses in cybersecurity.
(C) She can take part in JATA's logo design contest.
(D) She served on JATA's Board of Trustees.

171. What is NOT indicated about JATA in the letter?
(A) Its professors live on campus.
(B) Its students have access to modern equipment.
(C) It will be twenty years old on June 1.
(D) It is attended by international students.

Ashley Montaine 8:54 A.M.: How did the interview with Mr. Erickson go?

Dan Campbell 8:55 A.M.: I really enjoyed meeting him. I think he'd be a great reporter here. He seems smart and organized, and his samples show that he's a great writer.

Ashley Montaine 8:57 A.M.: Brooke, can you contact Mr. Erickson to set up the next interview? Is that a problem?

Dan Campbell 8:58 A.M.: I'd really like to work with him. It is very important that he impress Mr. Peters.

Brooke Randolph 8:59 A.M.: Not at all.

Ashley Montaine 9:00 A.M.: Thanks. I also see that he has a varied work history. That will make him a well-rounded reporter.

Brooke Randolph 9:02 A.M.: When would you like to meet with him again? Dan Campbell 9:03 A.M.: Ashley, I believe you will participate in the next interview. Note that Mr. Peters is probably going to ask why Mr. Erickson wants to transition from freelance writing to in-house news reporting. Also, Mr. Peters will want assurances that he's committed and will stick around for several years.

Ashley Montaine 9:04 A.M.: Brooke, Mr. Peters and I are both free Friday morning. Brooke Randolph 9:06 A.M.: Great. I'll write an e-mail shortly.

Questions 164-167 refer to the following article.

Houkcomm Eyes Downtown Roseville

(April 22)—Houkcomm, one of the state's leading telecommunications companies, will likely establish operations in Roseville. Houkcomm is reportedly looking to open a Roseville office as part of a new venture for the company: an expansion into the digital media industry. Houkcomm spokespeople have not offered any details on the plan, but two architects involved with the project confirmed that one proposed office building design would accommodate over 100 workers. The likely location for this soon-to-be constructed building, according to these sources, is a property adjacent to Behr Square in central Roseville.

164. What is Houkcomm planning to do in Roseville?
(A) Offer a new telephone service
(B) Lease space to subcontractors
(C) Relocate its headquarters
(D) Open a new business division

165. What is true about Houkcomm?
(A) It is the only telecommunications company in the state.
(B) It is currently leasing space in central Roseville.
(C) It has recently hired more than 100 new workers.
(D) It already has a major presence in the state.

166. How did the reporter most likely obtain information for the article?
(A) From a press release written by Houkcomm representatives
(B) By interviewing employees of a firm that is doing work for Houkcomm
(C) Through public documents and construction permits
(D) By attending a press conference in Roseville

167. According to the article, what is likely to happen soon?
(A) Construction will begin on a new building.
(B) All Behr Square residences will be purchased.
(C) Houkcomm will negotiate new supply contracts.
(D) Manufacturing jobs will increase in Roseville.

Questions 168-171 refer to the following e-mail.

From:	Takeshi Ishiguro
To:	All Sevastya employees
Subject:	Update
Date:	December 13

Dear Sevastya employees,

I am writing to give you an update on this year's sales so far. — [1] —. I am happy to report that currently our sales volume is up 20% from last year. This is due in part to the fact that we have been very successful in expanding our international reach.

— [2] —. In Brazil, sales increased 57% which can be attributed to the Rio de Janeiro Fashion Show where our evening wear was featured. A similar trend emerged in Russia, where sales were up by 32%. — [3] —. There we anticipate sustained growth for the rest of the year, especially in our winter apparel line. We also saw sales growth in the United Arab Emirates (UAE), but growth was a modest 10% due to fierce competition.

— [4] —. Thus, overall, it's been an excellent year so far. I am confident that our new program, which offers discounts to customers who invite others to shop with us, will begin to boost sales growth at all locations.

Sincerely,

Takeshi Ishiguro

Vice President of Sales

Questions 172-175 refer to the following article.

SAN DIEGO (June 1)—Windle Brothers Party Supplies (WBPS) announced today that it is acquiring Denver-based Grable's Costumes. — [1] —.

Long recognized as a reliable source of costumes for all occasions within the United States, Grable's Costumes made a successful move into East Asia last year, quickly capturing a sizeable portion of the costume market. — [2] —. WBPS has long been planning a move beyond the North American market, and the acquisition of Grable's Costumes is part of that strategy. "Grable's has a physical presence in the Asian market with stores in major cities. It also has brand recognition, " said WBPS CEO Maya Anderson. — [3] —. "Our goal is to capitalize on that success. All those Grable's stores in Asia will carry not just costumes, but Windle Brothers' entire array of party supplies as well. "

Grable's Costumes' current president, Charles Grable, will be named executive vice president. — [4] —. He will report directly to Ms. Anderson.

"This is a win for everybody, " said Mr. Grable. "Although Grable's has had some success in the East Asian market, WBPS is a much larger organization with more resources, so there's no limit for our costume sales now. "

Founded in Denver 26 years ago, Grable's Costumes has 22 stores in major markets in the United States, along with its four stores in China, three in Japan, and three in Korea. Headquartered in San Diego for all of its 43 years of operations, WBPS has 93 stores in the United States and Canada.

172. What is the subject of the article?
(A) A recent trend in costume design
(B) The retirement of a popular CEO
(C) A company's takeover of another company
(D) Changing conditions in the export market

173. What did WBPS find most attractive about Grable's Costumes?
(A) It carries unusual sizes.
(B) It is headquartered in Denver.
(C) It makes costumes for all occasions.
(D) It already has stores in Asian countries.

174. What is indicated about WBPS?
(A) It wants to increase its online sales.
(B) Its founder is the current CEO.
(C) It sells party supplies in Canada.
(D) It is not as old as Grable's Costumes.

Jane Espinosa, Ph.D.

Wenning University

4 Erial Drive

Franklin, WI 53132

Dear Professor Espinosa,

It is my pleasure to inform you that you have been selected to receive our prestigious Martin Dalio Engineering Research Grant. The grant committee believes that your research on energy distribution systems will result in a significant contribution to the field of electrical engineering. The grant will provide you with $12,000, which will be disbursed in quarterly installments. — [1] —.

The Martin Dalio Engineering Research Grant was created as a way to honor the legacy of Martin Dalio, who has left an indelible mark on the engineering community of the state of Wisconsin. — [2] —. Not only did Mr. Dalio work tirelessly as a university professor and researcher for 37 years, he also established the popular Dalio Engineering Workshops, which are provided free of charge to high school students across the state. Countless individuals so far have decided to pursue careers in engineering as a result of these workshops. — [3] —.

In order for you to receive the grant, the committee must receive verification of your current university employment. To this end, please see the enclosed verification form. Also enclosed is a letter of acceptance, which you are requested to sign. — [4] —. Please submit both documents by November 30.

Congratulations on your achievement. We wish you the best of luck in your future research!

Sincerely,

Elena Samuels

Martin Dalio Grant Committee

Questions 172-175 refer to the following notice.

CITY OF SANTEREO — REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

The city of Santereo is requesting proposals from qualified property-management service providers for the maintenance of various municipal facilities. Proposals will be accepted from January 21 through February 21 at the Office of the City Clerk (OCC), 1420 Larco Avenue, Suite 100. Proposals arriving after the submission deadline will not be considered.

Interested bidders should submit a cover letter highlighting their history, qualifications, and strengths. Additionally, four copies of the proposal should be provided, one of which should be on an electronic storage device, such as a USB drive. Also, reference letters from two current or former clients must be provided. They must be from clients that have used your services within the last three years. Questions concerning the proposal itself and submission thereof should be directed to Ms. Raquel Jimenez at the address above or at rjimenez@santereo.gov. They must be submitted in writing and will be responded to accordingly.

Proposals will be reviewed and scored by the city's Compliance Department. The top three proposals will be presented to the Santereo City Council at its March 15 meeting for the final decision. The successful company will be notified by mail. Please note that the contract will be awarded to the company considered to be best suited to meet the city's needs and not necessarily to the company that placed the lowest bid.

172. What will happen after February 21?
(A) Proposals will be accepted over the Internet only.
(B) Municipal buildings will be decorated.
(C) Proposals will be evaluated.
(D) Prizes will be claimed.

Questions 168-171 refer to the following online chat discussion.

Bita Sajjadi (1:33 P.M.) Ok, everyone, let's get started. First, let's get an update on ongoing projects. Anyone care to start us off?

Bart Mensing (1:34 P.M.) We're at the final stage of the construction of Furaha Bridge in Pretoria.

Bita Sajjadi (1:35 P.M.) Great. I'm glad we're finally close to finishing. The completion of the bridge is taking longer than we and the government officials there had anticipated. The press will be given a tour of the bridge next Wednesday, right? Bart Mensing (1:37 P.M.) Yes. Could I take that opportunity to once again highlight the advantages of this project?

Eduardo Luque (1:37 P.M.) Sorry for joining you late. I was on an important call. That train station project in New York got underway just three days ago, so I have nothing to report.

Bita Sajjadi (1:38 P.M.) Go ahead. The project had come under some criticism from a number of local politicians when it was first proposed four years ago, so its benefits cannot be emphasized enough.

Bita Sajjadi (1:39 P.M.) I understand, Eduardo. No doubt we'll be hearing more from you in the months ahead. How about you, Mariella?

Mariella Cosworth (1:41 P.M.) Currently, various digital infrastructure projects are being carried out across Europe. In the interest of time, rather than discuss each one here, I'll send you a detailed report sometime tomorrow.

Bita Sajjadi (1:42 P.M.) That's fine, Mariella. Thanks for the updates, everyone. On to our next item; the new paid time-off policy.

168. At 1:38 P.M., what does Ms. Sajjadi most likely mean when she writes, "Go ahead "?
(A) The Furaha Bridge project should be promoted.
(B) The New York project should begin soon.
(C) Tours of a construction site should be organized.
(D) Local politicians should be contacted.

169. What is indicated about the project in Pretoria?
(A) It was completed four years ago.
(B) It was widely reported in the press.
(C) It was met with some disapproval at first.
(D) It was funded by private investors.

170. What is most likely true about the company the writers work for?
(A) It specializes in train manufacturing.
(B) It plans to launch other projects in South Africa.
(C) It is an international company.
(D) It is headquartered in New York.

171. What will happen tomorrow?
(A) A policy will take effect.
(B) A reporter will visit the company.
(C) Some projects will be financed.
(D) Some information will be shared.

Questions 172-175 refer to the following e-mail.

To:	<mallen@trandimanufacturing.com>
From:	<wmusa@bileggen.com>
Date:	August 2
Subject:	Ready to be a great manager?

In today's complex business environment, managers need a proactive approach to developing staff. Research supports this and highlights an additional benefit: greater overall employee satisfaction. Through Bileggen's work with more than 80 companies, three significant themes have been identified, and we offer online training courses led by our expert facilitators in each of these key areas.

● Coaching Your Staff — This course delves into the main tenets of effective coaching. Course participants will also receive our newly published guidebook. ● Strength-Based Management — In this course participants will learn to identify their employees' strengths and how to leverage them toward building a strong team.

● Future Leaders — This course is for professionals who do not have direct supervisory responsibility yet. Be ahead of the game by identifying your natural management skills. Participants will be able to role-play within a variety of scenarios.

Optional one-on-one session with facilitator: Bileggen trainees may register for private online sessions with their course facilitator for a modest additional fee following completion of their course.

Courses cost $199 each during early registration. After August 15, courses cost our regular fee of $219 each. Tuition includes five sessions with facilitators and four online discussions in which participants explore each session topic. Unless otherwise indicated, course books and materials need to be purchased separately. Registration for fall courses is open at bileggen.org/ fallregistration.

If you have questions or need assistance, please e-mail Maja Blome at mblome@bileggen.com.

Regards,

Warner Musa

172. What is the purpose of the e-mail?
(A) To share some advice with managers
(B) To promote a training program
(C) To announce a new publication
(D) To introduce a new assistant

173. What is indicated about registration?
(A) It is offered with reduced course fees for a limited time.
(B) It is open to current managers only.
(C) It is offered free of charge to previous Bileggen participants.
(D) It will close on August 15.

174. What is included in the cost of each course?
(A) A private coaching session
(B) Access to an online library
(C) All books and materials
(D) Four online group discussions

175. What is suggested about Ms. Blome?
(A) She can help with registration concerns.
(B) She is an instructor.
(C) She is Mr. Musa's manager.
(D) She designed Bileggen's courses.
