PART 2 공략법 총정리

응답 선택 3단계 · 오답 함정 4종 · 유형별 정답 방향 · 우회 답변과 Paraphrase

1 · 풀이 3단계 — 첫 단어 잡기 · 함정 소거 · 정답 선택

STEP 1
첫 단어 잡기
문장 맨 앞 한두 단어가 질문의 유형과 정답 방향을 결정한다. 의문사 / 조동사·Be동사 / 평서문 중 무엇인지 가장 먼저 구분한다.

Who·Where·When·What·Why·How → 의문사 의문문 | Do·Are·Can·Have → 일반 의문문

STEP 2
함정 소거
보기 3개 중 오답 함정을 먼저 지운다. 질문 단어가 그대로 반복되거나, 발음이 비슷하거나, 연상되는 단어가 들리면 일단 의심한다.

의문사 의문문에 Yes / No로 시작하는 보기는 즉시 소거.

STEP 3
정답 선택
남은 보기 중 질문에 자연스럽게 이어지는 응답을 고른다. 직접 답하지 않는 우회 답변("I'm not sure", "Let me check")도 정답이 될 수 있다.

2 · 오답 함정 4종

함정 1
유사발음 (Similar sound)
질문에 나온 단어와 발음이 비슷한 단어로 헷갈리게 만든다. 비슷한 소리가 들리면 정답이 아닐 가능성이 높다.

copy ↔ coffee · fine ↔ find · work ↔ walk · launch ↔ lunch

함정 2
반복 단어 (Repeated word)
질문에서 들린 단어를 그대로 반복하는 보기 — 대부분 함정이다.

Q. When is the meeting? → (✗) The meeting room is large.

함정 3
연상 어휘 (Association)
질문 주제에서 연상되는 단어로 끌어들인다. 의미만 비슷할 뿐 질문에 답하지 않는다.

Q. Where's the airport? → (✗) I booked a flight.

함정 4
의문사 + Yes/No (Wh- + Yes/No)
Who·Where·When·Why·How·What 의문문에는 Yes / No로 답할 수 없다. Yes·No·Sure로 시작하면 소거.

Q. Why was it delayed? → (✗) Yes, it was.

3 · 의문사 · 문장 유형별 정답 방향

유형	정답이 향하는 곳	자주 나오는 정답 신호
Who	사람 이름 · 직책 · 부서	이름/직책, "I think ~", 우회("Not sure")
Where	장소 · 위치 · 방향	전치사구 in / at / on / next to / over there
When	시점 · 시간	시간 전치사 at / by / before, Not until ~, As soon as ~
What / Which	사물 · 대상 · 선택	구체적 명사, "The one ~", "The blue one"
Why	이유 · 목적	Because, To+동사, For, Due to
How	방법 · 수단 · 정도	By +-ing, 교통수단, "It's going well"
How much/many	가격 · 수량	금액 · 숫자, "About twenty", "Fifty dollars"
Be / 조동사	Yes·No 가능 (+우회)	Yes/No 뒤 부연, 또는 "Let me check" 형태의 우회
부정·부가의문문	내용으로 판단	Yes/No 함정 주의 — 사실이면 Yes, 아니면 No
평서문 · 제안	맞장구 · 역제안	"Sure", "That'd be great", "Let me check", "Good idea"

4 · 우회 답변 · Paraphrase가 빈출 정답

우회 답변이 정답
직접 답하지 않고 "모른다 · 확인하겠다 · 다른 사람에게 물어라"로 넘기는 응답이 최근 빈출 정답.

"I'm not sure." · "Let me check." · "Ask Mr. Kim." · "It hasn't been decided." · "Why don't you check the website?"

Paraphrase가 정답
질문의 단어를 그대로 쓰지 않고 다른 표현으로 바꾼 보기가 정답. 같은 단어 반복은 오히려 함정이다.

fix → repair / take care of · buy → purchase / get · start → begin / kick off

핵심 한 줄
첫 단어를 잡고, 반복·유사발음·연상 함정을 지운 뒤, 우회 답변과 Paraphrase를 의심하라.

문제 → 키워드 → 지문 스캔. 문제 순서 = 지문 순서. 선택지 (A)(B)(C)(D) 옆에 단어를 먼저 적으세요.

문제 유형별 풀이법

① 주제 · 목적

What is the purpose of the e-mail? / What is being advertised?

지문의 종류(제목 · 머리말)를 먼저 보고, 첫 1~2문장에서 답을 찾는다. 마지막 문장이 목적인 경우도 있다.

② 세부 사항

According to the notice, ... ? / What is stated about ... ?

질문의 키워드(고유명사 · 날짜 · 숫자 · 금액)를 잡아 지문에서 그 부분만 스캔한다.

③ NOT · 사실 확인

What is NOT mentioned / indicated about ... ?

선택지 4개를 지문과 하나씩 대조해 확인되는 3개를 지운다. 남는 하나가 정답.

④ 추론

What is suggested / implied / most likely true about ... ?

지문에 그대로 없다. 근거 문장을 찾아 딱 한 단계만 추론한다. 상상해서 고르지 않는다.

⑤ 의도 파악 (문자 · 채팅)

At 1:02 P.M., what does Mr. Kim most likely mean when he writes, "..."?

인용문 바로 앞뒤 두 줄이 근거다. 문장 자체의 사전적 뜻으로 고르면 함정에 걸린다.

⑥ 동의어

The word "significant" in paragraph 2, line 2, is closest in meaning to 해당 문장에 선택지를 하나씩 넣어 읽어 본다. 단어의 1번 뜻이 아니라 문맥의 뜻을 고른다.

⑦ 문장 삽입

In which of the positions marked [1], [2], [3], and [4] ... ?

삽입 문장의 지시어(this, these, he)와 연결어(also, however, thus)로 바로 앞 문장을 찾는다.

⑧ 연계 (이중 · 삼중 지문)

What is true about Mr. Lee? / What will he most likely do?

두 지문에 겹치는 키워드(이름 · 날짜 · 금액 · 주소)를 연결한다. 근거는 반드시 두 곳에 있다.

Questions 161-163 refer to the following letter.

Dear Editor,

I am writing about the article "Famous Music Venues: The Brassland Lounge" that appeared in the May edition of Music Beat Magazine. I really enjoyed the photographs you included and was pleased to read such a lengthy piece about that particular site. There is one thing I would like to point out, however. — [1] —.

The article states that Eli McCain was the original owner of the Brassland Lounge; in fact, while he was involved early on in the business, he was only an investor. — [2] —. It was Damion Pine who was the actual founder of the venue. I happen to know this because I used to play at the Brassland Lounge with my band on a regular basis, and I interacted with Mr. Pine often. — [3] —.

While I know that ownership of the business is not at the heart of the article, I still think this is an important part of the story of the Brassland Lounge. Through his business, Mr. Pine helped launch or boost the career of many talented local musicians. Yet, he is rarely credited for his contributions. — [4] —. We do him a disservice by not giving him his due.

Sincerely,
Elaine DuFour

Beth Bellaire (11:03 A.M.)
Good morning, team. Any news on our Wong Business Park bid?

Karl Komer (11:04 A.M.)
I talked to Mr. Wong on Friday. He said to expect a decision by Monday, but we haven't heard anything yet.

Beth Bellaire (11:05 A.M.)
This is cutting it close. If we don't order the plants and bushes by tomorrow, we won't get them in time to meet their deadline, even if we've already prepped the soil.

Hal Larson (11:06 A.M.)
I've already placed the order. I did it earlier this morning.

Beth Bellaire (11:07 A.M.)
That could be a problem. If we don't get the contract, we'll have to pay anyway. And we won't be able to use them. How much time do we have to cancel without incurring a fee?

Hal Larson (11:09 A.M.)
I figured since they chose us last time they'd probably go with us again. Let me check.

Beth Bellaire (11:10 A.M.)
Karl, can you get in touch with Mr. Wong and see what's going on?

Hal Larson (11:14 A.M.)
We have until the end of the day today to back out with no penalty.

Karl Komer (11:15 A.M.)
No need, Beth. I just got a call from Ms. Lee. She said it was close, but Mr. Wong decided to go with Rutkowski Brothers this time.

Beth Bellaire (11:18 A.M.)

Basurto Reveals Expo Plans

JOHANNESBURG (18 August) — Retail giant Basurto Apparel revealed today that it will not be presenting its latest clothing lines at this year's week-long Johannesburg Fashion Expo in November. — [1] —.

The expo is typically seen as one of the most significant events of the year for the clothing industry, where the nation's biggest retailers host elaborate presentations to show off their upcoming collections. It consistently attracts industry personnel and strong media attention. However, in recent years attendance by the general public has been sporadic at best. — [2] —.

In a press conference at company headquarters, Basurto President Goncalo Palmerio clarified that the decision to forgo presenting does not mean that the retailer will be absent from the expo. — [3] —. "Although there will be no public presentation, Basurto representatives will host smaller business-oriented meetings with distributors and retail partners," Palmerio said. "To introduce our new products to the public, we are planning a number of reveals on our official Web site as well as on social media throughout the entire week of the expo."

When asked the reason for the change in strategy, Mr. Palmerio replied that Basurto's goal is to maximize excitement for new products by revealing information to existing customers before releasing it to the general public. In addition, by not presenting clothing at the expo, Basurto will discourage consumers from evaluating its products against those of their competitors. Questions 172-175 refer to the following article.

Spectacular Bridge Created with Super Cranes

by Marcia Brunon March 14

Five years ago, a town in Stonewell, situated at the foot of the Marshall Mountains, decided to finance the building of a bridge across the Stonewell River. It was planned as a much-needed northern route for the town. — [1] —. The project's efficiency was directly attributable to two RWC 451 cranes, manufactured by Ronson Works, a company based in England.

The two identical tower cranes were owned by a construction firm, Redding Builders. One crane was assembled at the south bank of the river while the other one was placed on a concrete pylon in the center of the Stonewell River. — [2] —. Assembling the second crane was particularly challenging as it required the use of another crane on a floating barge.

"Any large project is going to require unforeseen adjustments that may disrupt the official construction schedule," said Redding Lee, the executive engineer of Redding Builders. — [3] —. In this case, the metal anchors that connected the bridge to the pylons were determined to be too small. The new anchor weighed 22 tons, which is within the safe lifting capacity of an RWC 451 crane. — [4] —. Engineers reinforced the existing cranes for extra security, and the cranes performed well.

Today, this postcard-worthy bridge is the pride of Stonewell, featuring platforms for pedestrians, hikers, and visitors at the base of each pier overlooking the mountainous valley. Construction materials and colors harmonize beautifully with the local environment. All design elements, including piers, viewing platforms, and railings, complement the natural landscape, making the bridge a hit with everyone from hikers to the truck drivers who now include it in their regular route.

172. What is suggested about the cranes?

(A) They are owned by Ronson Works.
(B) They were designed specifically for the Stonewell Bridge project.

Questions 172-175 refer to the following online chat discussion.

Sachie Fukui [3:34 P.M.]
Hello fellow travel enthusiasts. I need some advice. I will be vacationing in Pineland for a week, stopping at Crystal Village, Bender Canyon, and Misty Beach.

Chaunder Johns [3:42 P.M.]
My in-laws just got back from Pineland. They said the scenery was breathtaking.

Sachie Fukui [3:45 P.M.]
I have heard that. Public transportation is supposed to be quite good, so I'm torn between using the bus and renting a car. Any suggestions?

Omar Shamoun [4:24 P.M.]
I used the bus and saved quite a bit of money when I visited. Buses stop every couple of streets and bus stops are well marked.

Sachie Fukui [4:38 P.M.]
Is Pineland bus service reliable, Omar?

Chaunder Johns [4:42 P.M.]
A rental car comes in handy for last-minute itinerary changes though, right?

Omar Shamoun [4:48 P.M.]
Like clockwork. Buses leave every 10 minutes during the day.

Matt Crewson [4:52 P.M.]
But if there are more than three people in your party, the cost of public transportation can exceed that of renting a car.

Sachie Fukui [5:09 P.M.]
That's no wait time at all. Transit officials here could learn from their Pineland peers. And Matt, you have a good point. Looks like we're renting.

Matt Crewson [5:15 P.M.]
Several companies have desks right at the airport. And grab a handful of brochures from the kiosks before leaving the terminal. They have discount coupons that you couldn't get anywhere else.

Sachie Fukui [5:23 P.M.]
Thanks to all for your input.

172. With whom was Ms. Fukui most likely chatting?
(A) People who live in Pineland
(B) People who will accompany her on her trip
(C) People who travel regularly
(D) People who work in the travel industry

173. Why has Ms. Fukui decided to rent a car?
(A) Because public transportation is going to be crowded
(B) Because the buses do not service her intended destinations
(C) Because she does not like to wait for buses
(D) Because she will be traveling with more than three people

174. At 5:09 P.M., what does Ms. Fukui most likely mean when she writes, "Transit officials here could learn from their Pineland peers"?
(A) The bus fare in her city is not cheap.
(B) The bus service in her city is not reliable.
(C) The bus stops in her city are not properly indicated.
(D) The bus routes in her city do not offer beautiful views.

175. What does Mr. Crewson indicate about the airport?
(A) Car rentals are available only at the airport.
(B) Public transportation is not available at the airport.
(C) Tourists can obtain special coupons at the airport.
(D) Information kiosks at the airport are located next to the car rental desks.

From:	Vojin Vasic
Date:	12 April
Subject:	Rental

Dear Penelope,

Thank you for speaking with me earlier on the phone. As I mentioned, I am seeking a new rental space for my restaurant, whose lease expires in August. If possible, I would prefer something in or near the Midwood District, ideally with a monthly payment in the area of €4,000. And as I mentioned, the size ought to be similar to that of the current location. As for more details like interior or layout, I am open to seeing whatever is available.

To ease the financial burden on my staff, I am hoping for a relatively fast transition to the new space. I would like to open by the end of September. Therefore, the less remodeling needed the better. Despite its shortcomings, my staff and I will certainly miss the space we have occupied for so long!

Sincerely,
Vojin Vasic

Swan Lily Moves to a New Pond

By Jin Soo Hwang

STOCKPORT (29 September) — Swan Lily, the venerable restaurant that stood on the corner of Baxter Avenue and 42nd for 14 years, has moved to a new location at 17 Third Street. It officially opened its doors last Monday.

All pizzas and house breads at Swan Lily are still baked using the brick-oven cooking style that made the restaurant famous. I recommend the Pizza Semplice, as the flavors are simply magical. The salads are magnificent as always.

Be advised that seating in the dining room is somewhat more limited than at the previous location. On a busy night, patience is required. However, those willing to wait are rewarded not only with fabulous food, but also the same impeccable service that has kept the restaurant running for so many years.

Memo

To:	Absalom and Twigg Law Firm employees
From:	Shawna Montgomery, Office Manager
Subject:	March plans
Sent:	February 12
Attachment:	Schedule

As most of you are aware, our schedule will be a bit challenging during the first week in March. Various rooms and offices will need to be vacated for certain periods to allow work crews to repaint, recarpet, and replace old furniture. Affected employees will need to box up all their office items by 3 P.M. on the day before their room is scheduled for work (please see the attached schedule). Two teams of workers will be on-site, so more than one room at a time will need to be vacated. Note that any rooms due for work on Monday must be packed up and vacated by Friday afternoon, February 27.

Boxes will be provided. Leave your boxes in the rooms for the work crews to remove. Please label them with your name and office number so that the crews can return them to the correct offices once the work is complete. Please make arrangements to continue working on your assignments while the work crews are in your rooms. The conference room (room 409) will remain available to be used as a workspace for the entire week. Another possible option is to request permission from your supervisor to telecommute for one or two days.

Please have patience with these temporary inconveniences and do not hesitate to contact me with any questions or concerns.

Professional Seeking Apartment in Burlington

Topic: Real Estate and Housing Date: June 23

I accepted a new position in Burlington and need to relocate near the downtown area before my start date on August 15. I'm seeking a simple, clean, one-bedroom rental or larger, depending on the price. A relaxing location with outdoor seating for entertaining friends or family would be a plus. I do have a car, but I'd appreciate having good access to public transportation. I have a budget of around $1,400 monthly to cover all housing costs, including utilities.

Apartment for Rent in Burlington

Topic: Real Estate and Housing Date: June 23

Be the first to rent this two-bedroom apartment upon completion of extensive renovation. This property will be move-in ready on August 1. It will feature a clean modern look, new floors throughout, and all new appliances. It is situated downtown, and students are welcome as it is less than 10 minutes by bus to Denton University from the City Transportation office. Cats and small dogs are potentially permitted but with conditions, so please inquire. $1,400 also pays for water, sewer, garbage pick-ups, and general upkeep of the property. The electricity and natural gas will be the responsibility of the tenant. A one-time security deposit equal to one month's rent should be paid upon signing the rental agreement.

Rating: ★★★★★

This product is amazing. I'm a caterer, and I've used a lot of food processors, but this is by far the best one. Its motor is strong, and the many blades and settings make it extremely versatile. The price is a little expensive, but it is worth the investment. Since I have a membership, I got the discount. The only complaint I have about it is that it is heavy, so it wasn't as portable as I had hoped. However, overall, I am very satisfied with the product.

From: Victor Aluko <victor.aluko@paliproperties.co.za>
Subject: Commercial properties
Date: 7 April
Dear Ms. Tembo,
I am writing you regarding your inquiry about commercial space in our Bronkhorst St. property in Pretoria. Currently, there are two units available.
The first one is on the second floor of the building. It has 275 square meters of space but no food preparation area, as the previous business there was a clothing retailer.
The second unit is 153 square meters in size and on the ground floor of the building. It previously housed a coffee shop. There are already hookups for plumbing and gas. However, in light of the full-scale commercial kitchen you would like your restaurant to have, further equipment upgrades would be necessary.
Let me know your preference, if any, and we can arrange a viewing of the property at your convenience.
Thank you,

Yertee Launches New Webinar
LONDON (30 July)·Yertee, an online clothing retailer based here, is currently organising a webinar to discuss the benefits of hiring a third-party garment inspector. The webinar, titled "Achieve High Sourcing Standards by Partnering with Industry Experts," will be held on 15 August.
"We recently faced an issue with one of our most popular jackets," said Yertee's general manager, Ashti Ahmadi. "Customers were buying the jackets in the same size they had purchased in the past, and they were understandably disappointed when they found the jackets to be shorter and wider than the ones they had purchased before. Hundreds of customers returned the jackets·all because we didn't set clear enough dimension standards in our sizing requirements."
With factories in several countries, Yertee was unable to send staff to each of the manufacturing facilities frequently enough to guide the processes. Yertee decided to seek help from an independent garment-inspection company to create detailed quality-control guidelines and conduct on-site inspections prior to shipping.
"Working with a third-party inspector is the best decision we have ever made," said Ms. Ahmadi, "and we hope the webinar will help other retailers learn from our mistakes."
To register for the £20 webinar or to browse other Yertee webinars on topics related to supply-chain management, visit www.yertee.co.uk/webinars. All webinars are recorded, archived, and available for viewing by registrants at any time.

Cornish Pasties At Grover's Mill
ATLANTA (March 23)·When Emily Pascoe arrived in Atlanta from Cornwall in Britain five years ago, she dearly missed a staple from her birthplace·the Cornish pasty. Traditional pasties, which have been on the menu in Cornwall since the area's mining days, consist of a savory crust filled with steak, potatoes, onions, and turnips. · [1] ·. After receiving an enthusiastic response when she made her grandmother's version for friends, Ms. Pascoe bought a small food truck and started selling pasties at local festivals. Ms. Pascoe was able to open the shop after receiving a grant from the Atlanta Food Vendors Alliance (AFVA). · [3] ·. "I'm very grateful to the organization for providing me with the financial means," she said. The grand opening celebration will take place on Friday and Saturday from 12 noon to 6:00 P.M. Questions 164-167 refer to the following letter.

August 15
Eliza Runyon
26 Beauview Boulevard
Lanniston, NJ 07609
Dear Ms. Runyon:
I am writing to inform you about a traffic study that will be conducted in your area soon. Please review this information at your earliest convenience.
The city council has received many complaints from area residents about increased vehicular traffic in town, particularly during peak driving periods. This traffic has led to long delays and safety concerns. As a result, the city will implement some directional changes to local streets in order to study their impact on the volume of traffic. Merlin Street, Pearl Avenue, and Crawford Way will all become one-way streets, while Beauview Boulevard will remain a two-way street. During the study, the number of vehicles traveling on each of these streets will be measured daily. The study will also measure the traffic on Lanton Avenue and Main Street, to which all four of the previously mentioned streets connect.
The study will continue for at least three months, starting on October 15 and ending on or about January 15. After a review of the information collected, the city council will determine whether to make the directional changes permanent. This decision will be made by March 15.

Questions 168-171 refer to the following article.

Korean Furniture Maker Comes to Detroit
DETROIT (March 18)·Korean furniture store Paenji Designs is set to open a showroom in Detroit in mid-April. The 15,000-square-meter store will be located at 540 Woodbridge Lane. Paenji Designs is known for creating single pieces of furniture that can be reconfigured to fit a variety of needs.
The company's best-selling product from last year is a bed that folds out to become both a desk and a couch. Marketed under the brand name Transiteer, it gained the company fame when it was featured on the popular home remodeling show Fix That House.
"Prior to being mentioned in the TV show, we had no intention of opening a store in the United States," said Paenji Designs' managing director, Min-Seong Byun, during a preview tour of the store on March 15. "One of the interior designers regularly featured on the show had become fond of our furniture when she was an exchange student in Korea, so she incorporated one of our pieces into her client's home. Ever since, we have been getting hundreds of calls and e-mails from people in the United States wanting to buy our products."
According to Mr. Byun, it did not make logistical or financial sense for Paenji Designs to arrange individual shipments to the United States, so the company chose to establish a branch in Detroit.
"We decided that opening a showroom in Detroit was the most efficient way to accommodate this new client base," Mr. Byun said. "We are excited to venture into this business enterprise and offer our unique line of products to this new market."
Visit www.paenjidesigns.com for more information.

Questions 168-171 refer to the following article.

Easing Commutes

A recent survey by Keats Research revealed that the average daily round-trip commute in Holden now tops an hour and a half. Many workers arrive at their job exhausted from their journey and irritated about the cost of commuting. These long commutes lead to lower employee productivity, decreased job satisfaction, and a high turnover rate. · [1] ·. Consequently, many companies are looking for ways to ease employees' rough commutes. Telecommuting is one possible solution. An increasing number of businesses have been allowing employees to work from home a few days a week. · [2] ·. This is worthwhile for everyone. Eliminating long, stressful commutes leads to employees starting the workday relaxed. This results in increased productivity and a reduction in absenteeism.

Another solution is carpools. By reducing the number of vehicles on the road, carpools can reduce overall traffic, resulting in shorter commute times for all. Employees can also decrease their personal commuting costs and arrive at work feeling less stressed. Companies can also choose to organize low-cost carpools for employees who need to work on-site. · [3] ·.

One more way to ease commutes is allowing employees to work on-site during nontraditional hours. This option can significantly cut commuting times by getting workers off the road during rush hour.

Not all companies are able to implement changes that will help reduce commuting times. · [4] ·. However, for those that can, the recent survey results may provide additional incentives to make adjustments sooner rather than later.

This annual awards ceremony once again made clear that locals and tourists alike are drawn not only to the wide variety of cuisines available here but also to the passion and creativity of the restaurateurs and chefs.
Among this year's winners, Azura Desa's restaurant, Cheery's, was named Best Casual Restaurant. To: Oswald Khumalo <okhumalo@dapnumbank.co.za>
From: Saxon Wong <swong@tabulacafe.co.za>
Date: 19 September
Subject: Loyal customer
Dear Mr. Khumalo,
I have been a loyal customer of Dapnum Bank for over ten years and believe that your bank offers wonderful services. In fact, in addition to my bank account, I also have a credit card and home mortgage with you.
Unfortunately, I have been experiencing some difficulty with the Melville Road branch, the one I visit most frequently. During my most recent visit yesterday, I had to make a cash deposit. There were ten people ahead of me in line, and I waited more than an hour. There were plenty of bank tellers working at that time.
Whenever I visit this branch, I have the same problem. Last week I was at the bank when it first opened, and the week before I went at lunchtime. Yesterday, I went shortly before the bank closed. Each time, I had the same problem.
I need to make deposits for my new business, Tabula Cafe, on a regular basis. Your bank is conveniently located, as it is across the street from my cafe. However, I am very busy and do not have time to wait this long. Please let me know how you plan to address this issue. Although I would like to continue my relationship with Dapnum Bank, I have been looking into doing my banking elsewhere.
Sincerely,
Saxon Wong

Questions 168-171 refer to the following text-message chain.

Thea Gibb (2:31 P.M.) Hi, Desmond and Clerio. The Auto Renters' Association conference is coming up in two weeks. We'd better get moving and order the promotional fliers we'll be handing out.
Desmond Brower (2:33 P.M.) Hi, Thea. That's right, we didn't finish discussing it during our Monday call. Which flier would you like to use this year?
Clerio Cardoso (2:34 P.M.) Do we know how many fliers we'll need?
Desmond Brower (2:36 P.M.) Not yet. When I get back to the office tomorrow, I'll call the association's conference planner to see how many people have registered. Then I'll add another 5 percent for latecomers.
Thea Gibb (2:38 P.M.) For this year's conference, let's use the brochures with the foldout map showing all six of our car rental locations. Once you determine how many fliers we'll need, could one of you reach out to Orson's again for an estimate? Also, let's see if we can get a better price from them than we got last year.
Clerio Cardoso (2:40 P.M.) Sure, I'll do that. And I'll get estimates from at least two other printing firms as well.
Thea Gibb (2:44 P.M.) That makes sense. Please also see if the fliers can be shipped directly to the conference center by March 3. Otherwise one of you will have to pick them up and bring them to the conference on your own.

Hello, Mr. Ulanday,
Thank you for booking C. Y. Yoon at the Palayan Theater. Mr. Yoon is looking forward to connecting with his fans in your famous venue.
Allow me to take a moment to reiterate some of the contractual requirements related to the artist's backstage lounge, or greenroom. Per the contract, the room needs to be carpeted and softly lit. It must be equipped with a piano, a music stand, a full-length mirror, and an iron and ironing board. Be sure to stock the room with fruit and salt-free pretzels. To help protect Mr. Yoon's voice, an assortment of herbal teas, honey, and purified water must be provided. Please see the attachment, where I have itemized the teas he requires.
